

their bodies and move to be sold, but entailed from heir to heir. Eighthly it is my will that after the death of my beloved Wife, the dwelling house in Amers street shall not be sold, but kept as a house in common for the family and as a home for any of my children or grand children that may stand in need of a home. Sixthly it is my will that after the death of my beloved Wife, that all my personal Estate be equally divided between my sons Robert, Nathaniel, William and daughters Mary, Elizabeth Wyatt and Nancy Leiby share and share alike, to them and their assigns for ever, free from the intermeddling or controul of Richard Planks or Richard Wyatt, and I do hereby appoint my son Robert Leiby as Trustee for his Sisters and their Children. Seventhly it is my will that if either or all my sons Robert, Nathaniel, William or daughters Mary, Elizabeth or Nancy, should depart this life either before or after the death of their Mother, that then their share or shares shall go to their child or children and the heirs of their bodies, and if either of my sons Robert, Nathaniel, William or daughters Mary, Elizabeth or Nancy should leave no Issue, then their share or shares shall go to the survivors or survivor of them, and it is my Will that no part whatever of my real Estate shall be sold or otherwise disposed of, but remain in the family and go from heir to heir and the longest liver take all. And I do hereby constitute and appoint my beloved Wife Elizabeth Executrix and my sons Robert and Nathaniel and William Executors to this my last Will and Testament, revoking all other Wills heretofore by me made, made, saying and confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the second day of April in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and in the twenty fourth Year of American Independence.
