32. In the Name of God Amen, I William Smilie of St. John's Parish Colleton County and State of South Carolina make this my last Will and Testa.

10. ment. I resign my soul to its Creator, in all humble hope of its future happiness, as in the disposal of being infinitely good, as to my body my Will is it be buried in the Church Yard at Willtown bluff at the South west corner of the Church near my Father. Item it is my Will that my Executors divide all my Negroes (the house Negroes and the driver Nabli excepted) into two parts or lots, and I give the use of one part or lot, to my Wife Susanna Smelie during her natural life and at her death I give the said Negroes together with their Issue to my Sister Anne Seabrook and to her Children the survivors or survivor of them, to them and their heirs for ever. And the other part or lot of said Negroes I give and bequeath to my daughter Anne Reynolds, to her and her heirs for ever.
Item to my Wife Susanna Smelie I give the use of all the cleared land on the tract whereon I now live, together with a sufficiency of fencing timber for the use of said Plantation and fire wood for her own consumption from off the uncleared land, and also all my house Negroes and household goods, horses and carriages of every kind, and stock of every kind, during her natural life, and at her death, I give the said Plantation or tract of land, to Mary Young and Elizabeth, the daughters of Benjamin Reynolds Esq. or the survivor of them, to them and their heirs for ever. And the house Negroes I give and 1 bequeath to my daughter Anne Reynolds to her and her heirs for ever. Item to my Wife Susanna Smilie, I give and bequeath the house in town and the lot upon which it stands together with all my household furniture to her and her heirs for ever in lieu of her right of dower on my Estate. Item I give and bequeath to my Sister Anne Seabrook and to her Children, all my lands on the North side of Bearbluff Road, laying Eastward of a direct line to be run from a live oak corner near the second mile post, until it strikes the red dam thence along the near ditch down to the salt marsh to be equally divided between the survivors, or survivor of them, to them and their heirs for ever.

And all the land laying West of the above described line commonly called Martins point up to the lands of Benjamin Reynolds, I give and bequeath to Mary Yong and Elizabeth, the daughters of the said Benjamin Reynolds or the survivor of them, to them and their heirs for ever.
And the use of the saw Mill laying within the last described lines, I give to be equally divided between my Sister Anne Seabrook and my daughter Anne Reynolds during their natural lives. Item to my Nephew Joseph S. Seabrook I give and bequeath the lands I bought of c W.^{rs} Moncrieff called Yongs Islands on Ashepoo River, to him and his heirs for ever. Item to the driver c Vabb who has faithfully served me I give his freedom together with one acre of land near his house, during his life and tis my Will the 12 two persons to whom I have bequeathed the greater quantity of property shall pay him yearly eleven dollars each during his life. Item all the rest of my Estate real and personal, I give and bequeath to Mary Yong, and Elizabeth the daughters of Benjamin Reynolds Esquire or the survivor of them, to them and their heirs for ever. Item should either of the persons to whom I have bequeathed property, endeavor either directly or indirectly to overthrow or sett aside, any part of this Will they shall forfeit all the property left them and the property so forfeited, both real and personal I give and bequeath to the daughters of the aforementioned Benjamin Reynolds, & Mary Yong and Elizabeth or the survivor of them, to them and their heirs for ever. Lastly I appoint my Wife Susanna Amelia Executrix, and Benjamin Reynolds, John Seabrook and William Haynes Esquire Executors of this my last Will and Testament, and my desire is that they collect as soon as convenient, the amount of all my debts and pay them in the following manner, first the ones on hand and debts due me, and if these fall short recourse must be had to some property left by the last clause commonly call the sweeping clause, viz the vacant lots in town, one of which must be sold and if the ballance of debt should be still greater than the value of the other lots that must be also sold, and the remaining ballance divided among the legatees each paying according to the value of the property left them

13 so that all demands may be satisfied before the property is given up by the Executors. In Witness whereof I have to this my last Will and Testament sett my hand and seal the first day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety eight.
