Personally came Sarah Ann Fruman before me and made oath that soon after the death of M^{rs} Mary Davis wife of C. W. Davis she this deponent was requested to take charge of an infant child (a daughter) of said Mary Davis, then named Mary Eliza, then about two weeks old,
- deponent consented to do so and on taking the said child in her charge, found it in a very critical state of health and filled with sores, but by careful treatment and nursing it recovered and is still alive - Deponent took charge of the infant on the 6th day of March ¹⁸⁶³ and carefully attended to its finding clothing &c until the 1st day of March 1865, during which time she was put to considerable trouble and bestowed all necessary care and attention to the said infant to secure her health and comfort -
