Personally appeared before me Arch^d. S. Smith,

One of the subscribing witnesses, to the within Will, who made oath ~~that~~^{on} the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, that he saw Duncan Smith sign, seal, publish and pronounce and declare the same to be his last will and testament, That he was then of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, to the best of deponents knowledge and belief; And deponents together with Robin Stee and A. D. Smith signed their names thereto as witnesses at his request, in his presence and in the presence of each other.

Given under my hand and seal this,

A. S. Smith

I do solemnly swear that the within writing contains the last will and testament of Duncan Smith, so far as I know or believe; And that I will well and truly execute the same, by first paying the debts, and then the legacies contained in said Will as far as his goods & chattels will extend and the law charge me; And that I will make a true and correct inventory of all such goods and chattels, so help me God -

Sworn before me this
