

State of South Carolina, Trentonville District

In the name of God. Amen

I, Edmund Waddill of the District and State aforesaid, being in good bodily health, of sound and disposing mind and memory, and being desirous of settling my worldly affairs, and of directing as to how the Estates with which it be pleased God to bless me, shall be disposed of after death, while I have strength and capacity, do hereby solemnly make and publish this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and making null and void all other last Wills and Testaments by me heretofore made: And first I commit my soul to God who gave it, and my body to the earth from whence it came, to be decently buried by my Executors hereinafter named. And as to my worldly estates, and all the property, whether Real, Personal or Mixed, of which I may die seized and possessed, or in any wise entitled, I do give, devise, bequeath and dispose of the same in the manner following, to wit;

First I give, devise, and bequeath, to my beloved wife Mary Waddill, for and during the term of her natural life, the following property, to wit, my three slaves Bob, Joe, and Nancy, and also any and every part of my household and kitchen furniture that she may desire and select.

Secondly, I will and direct, that my Executors hereinafter named, shall as soon as practicable after my death, proceed to collect all debts due and owing to me, and to sell all my property both Real and Personal, (except that hereinbefore bequeathed to my wife for life) at Public sale on credit of two years, with interest from the date of sale, requiring good security for the payment of the purchase money, and I do hereby authorize and empower my said Executors to execute and deliver any and all necessary deeds and papers for conveying the Titles of all the property both Real and Personal, which shall be sold by them.

Thirdly. I do hereby will and direct that my Executors, as soon as sufficient funds for this purpose may come into their hands, shall pay to my beloved wife Mary Waddill the sum of two thousand Dollars, or the interest annually upon that sum if she may so desire it, and that my said Executors shall also pay to her, and for the sum of money that she may desire, or that may be necessary for her comfort and habitation, and I do further will and direct that my said Executors, shall invest the further sum of two thousand Dollars, or more if it shall be necessary, in the purchase of such a House and Lot in the Town of Greenville or elsewhere, as my said wife Mary Waddill may desire and direct, to be held, possessed, and enjoyed by her, as a residence and home, for and during the term of her natural life.

shall retain in their hands the sum of Three thousand Dollars until the death of one of my said Brothers, and then Two thousand Dollars until the death of the other.

Sixthly. If either of my Brothers Nathan or Nicholas, to each of whom I have bequeathed the interest on Two thousand Dollars during life, should die before the death of my wife, or if my Brother Noel to whom I have bequeathed Two thousand Dollars absolutely, or if either of my nephews Tolbert Waddill, Samuel Waddill, Alexander Waddill, and Isaac Green to each of whom I have bequeathed One thousand Dollars absolutely, should die before my own death, then the legacies so bequeathed to such of my said Brothers and nephews as may so die, shall respectively fall back into my estate, to be disposed of as provided and directed in the next clause.

(34) Seventiethly. The legacies which may lapse according to the preceding clauses, and all the rest and residue of the proceeds of my estates, shall be retained in the hands of my Executors at interest, until the death of my wife Mary Waddill, subject to the provisions in her favor, and at her death the same, together with the money and property she may leave and the proceeds of the property left her for life and the house and lot to be purchased for her shall be equally divided between my nieces and nieces, living at my death, excepting and excluding the children of my Brother Alexander Waddill; my said nephews and nieces, except the children of Alexander Waddill.

and nieces, living at my death, excluding and excluding the children of my Brother Alexander Waddill; my said nephews and nieces, and the children of Alexander Waddill, to same and share alike, to them and their heirs. But this bequest is not to extend to the children of any such nephew and niece, who may die before my own death. At the death of my wife my Executors shall sell and convey the three said slaves, the said house and Lot, and any other property that she may leave, for the purpose of carrying into effect the bequests contained in this clause.

Eighthly. If either or both my Brother Nathan and Nicholas shall outlive my wife, then at their deaths respectively the principal sum from which their interest accrues shall be divided among my nephews and nieces according to the descriptions, exceptions, and direction of the seventh clause hereof. and if my wife shall die before my death then all bequests made to her or on her account shall be likewise divided in the same manner.
