

Last Will and Testament of James Archer
Kershaw County Will Book A1, page 236

WILL OF

JAMES ARCHER.

Kershaw District)
)
State of South Carolina)

In The Name of God Amen- I James Archer being sick of Body tho' sound in mind do make this my last will and Testament----

In the first Place-- I will and bequeath to my Brother David Archer my riding horse and my servant man Job,--

2nd To my Brother John Archer I will and bequeath my negro man Peter.

3rd To my Brother Harvey . I will and bequeath my negro man
Alexander Archer
Allen and my Feather Bed.-

4th I will and Bequeath to my Brother William Milton Archer my writing Desk and my Family Bible, with two dictionaries there to 5th I will and Bequeath to my Brothers John & David Archer all the remainder of my stock of Horses and Horned Cattle for their use until such time as my younger brothers Harvey, Alexander, William Milton and George Miller Archer shall come to legal age; when they and each of them are to have and enjoy and equal participation in the proceeds of the above mentioned stock of Horses and Horned Cattle, The Above mentioned John & David giving Bond and Sufficient Security for its safe keeping after due appraisement of said Stock--- I also will and Bequeath to said John & David the use of all my Tools and Implements of whatever description after due appraisement.-

The tract of Land that the mill stands on is for the use of my five Brothers David John Harvey Alexander Milton George Archers is to be Divided as they proper-^{think} my Real Estate to be Divided amongst my five Brothers David John Harvey Alexander William Milton George Miller Archers. The Said David Archer and John Archer Executors to Do Real Justice to my younger Brothers

Richard Stratford
Nicholas Robinson

By my Geese I give and Bequeath unto Brother David Archer & John Archer they are to save feathers and give Milton good Bed that weighs fifty weight.