

WILL OF RICHARD HOLCOMB

In the name of God, Amen. June 22th, 1794. I Richard HOLCOMB of Laurens County and State of So. Carolina, being very sick in body but of perfect mind and memory, thanks be to God, for it and calling to mind my mortality and knowing it is appointed for men to die. First of all I recommend my soul into the hands of God who gave it, nothing doubting I shall receive the same again at the general resurrection by the mighty power of God and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in christian burial at the discretion of my Extrs. And for such worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me with in this life I give dimise and bequeath in the following manner and form. Premise I give and bequeath to Sarah HOLCOMB my well beloved wife all my estate (viz) cattle. Excepting one three year old heifer and all my household furniture excepting one feather bed and furniture with all my hogs and sheep and one horse plantation tools together with twenty five acres of land lying on the middle fork of Durbins Creek, which I now occupy for her freely to enjoy and possess. I also give to Jess and Hays one three year old heifer with her increase from June the one day 1794. And one feather bed and furniture all ready determind on. I also constitute and appoint my well beloved friend Jacob ROBARDS my soul Exets. and hereby revoke and disannull all former wills, bequeaths, and legacies. Ratifying and confirming the same to my last will and testament. Signed and sealed the day first above written. Signed, sealed, published, and declared and pronounced to be my last will and testament. In the presence of us:
