

In the name of God, Amen. I, Darling White, of the district of Marion, and State of South Carolina, being infirm in body, but of sound and disposing mind and memory, and being desirous to settle my worldly affairs whilst I have strength and Capacity to do so, do make and publish this my last will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void, all former Wills by me, at any time heretofore made.

Imprimis: It is my will and desire that my Executors, hereinafter to be named, do pay all my just debts and funeral expenses, out of my estate.

Item. I give and devise to my daughter Jane Wiggins, a tract of land containing one hundred and fifty acres, bounded on the south, by John Hasselden's land, extending on the East and North, as far as the lines of my land go; and separated from the balance of of my land on which I live, by the nearest cross fence to Elias Wiggins, which now divides said Wiggins from my enclosure: I also give and bequeath to my said daughter Jane Wiggins two cows and calves and one feather bed and furniture, which she now has in possession, to her and her heirs forever. Item, I give and bequeath to my daughter Catherine White, one mare Colt; also one feather bed and furniture, and three cows and Calves, on her attaining the age of twenty one years, or day of marriage, to her and her heirs forever Item: I wish my beloved wife Elizabeth White to remain on my plantation, and to have the use of the balance of my furniture and plantation tools, not herein particularly named, also the use of as much land as may be necessary for her comfortable support, as long as she shall live, or remain my widow; I also give and bequeath to my said Wife Elizabeth, my negro man Jim, two houses, three cows and calves, and my stock of hogs, for and during the term of her natural life or Widowhood as aforesaid, but no longer. Item, I give and bequeath to my son Wesley White, two cows and calves, one feather bed and furniture, and one mare: and on the death or marriage of my said Wife Elizabeth, I give, devise and bequeath to my said son Wesley all the balance of my land, and the said negro man Jim, to him and his heirs forever. Item. I give to my daughter Mary Anderson, one dollar. Item. I give and bequeath all the residue of my estate, not hereinbefore disposed of, to be equally divided between my son Wesley, and my daughters, Jane and Catherine, share and share alike. Item, should my said son Wesley, or either of my said daughters depart this life with out leaving lawful issue, in that case it is my exprese will and desire, that the property given to such Child, be equally divided between the survivor, or survivors of them, the said last mentioned Wesley, Jane, and Catherine, to them, and their heirs forever.

And I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint, my friends Benjamin Holt and Harod Stackhouse, to be executors of this my last Will and Testament.

In Witnefs whereof I, the said Darling White, have to this my last Will and Testament, set my hand and Seal, this twentieth day of August Anno Domini, One thousand, eight hundred, and thirty one
