

WILL OF

MARGARET ERSKINE

In the name of God Amen. I Margaret Erskin, of the State of South Carolina and Newberry District, being of sound and disposing mind and Memory, but weak in body, and calling to mind the uncertainty of life, and being desirous to dispose of all such worldly estate as it has pleased God to blefs me with, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following viz-

First-- It is my will and desire that all my property net herein specifically willed be sold by my executor herein after named and appointed as soon after my decease as may seem to them most advisable, and that the proceeds of the sale of the same and so much of the ready money which I may leave on hand at my decease be applied to the payment of my just debts and funeral expences.

Secondly-- I will and bequeath to my beloved son John Hall that plantation or tract of land on which he now lives, also all the notes and accounts which I hold against him or may hold at the time of my decease to him and his heirs forever.

Thirdly-- I will and bequeath to my beloved daughter Nancy Carmichael one bed, bed stead and furniture to her and her heirs forever

Fourthly-- I will and bequeath to my grand daughter Margaret Hall one bed, bed stead and furniture, also all my wearing apparel, and Homespun Cloth and spun thread- also such Books as she may choose out of such as are left at my decease.

Fifthly All the rest remainder & residue of my estate, both real and personal, I will should be equally divided among and between my daughter Nancy Carmichael and my grand daughter Margaret Hall.

Lastly. I do constitute and appoint my friend William Martin Executor to this my last will and Testament, hereby revoking all
