In the name of God — amen — I Thomas Reese Clergyman of Pendleton County, in the State of South Carolina, being in a very weak and low state of body, but of sound mind & perfect memory, do make and ordain this my last Will & Testament.
Firstly & principally, I commit my Soul to God, who gave it, as into the hands of a faithful Creator, and my frail mortal Body to the dust, whence it was taken, to be buried at the will of my Executors in a decent Christian manner; in humble hope of Resurrection to eternal Life, through the Merits & Mediations of my blessed Redeemer — And it is my will that ^{no} spirituous liquor be used at my Funeral; but lest that should be thought to proceed from a covetous temper, my Executors are hereby directed, to take as much money out of my Estate as they suppose might have been sufficient for the purchase of said Liquor, and bestow on those whom they deem real Objects of Charity — And as to those worldly Goods, with which God, in his Goodness
