

BEFORE GOD AND MAN:

I, Andrew Jenkins of the aforesaid State and District, knowing the certainty of death and the uncertainty of life, and at this time being under some bodily afflictions, but of perfect sound mind and memory, and having some property to dispose of make the following my last will and testament, revoking all others.

In the first place, for the natural love and affection which I have and bear towards my beloved wife Elizabeth Ann Jenkins, I give and bequeath unto her my entire estate, consisting of my lands, negroes, stock of all kinds, household and all such property, notes at interest, and any and all the property in any shape I may die possessed of. It is further my desire that my wife have a right at any time she may think proper to trade away any of the above property that she may become displeased with, negroes sometimes need to be shifted when they become troublesome to their owners. She will have ample means to pay off whatever may be against my estate out of the notes I have now on hand.

In the last place I do hereby constitute and appoint E. P. Verner together with my wife Elizabeth Ann Jenkins, my sole Executor & Executrix, to carry this my last will and testament into effect.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto affixed my name and seal this 5th day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

Witness my hand and seal
