

IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN:

I, Robert Norris, of the State and District aforesaid, being in a reasonable state of health, mind and memory, and frequently calling to mind the mortality of my body, I herein with my own hand set forth this as my last will and testament finally revoking and disannulling all others by me made heretofore, and -

1st. As to whatever land property I have or may have at my death I give and bequeath to my wife Elizabeth Norris to be for her use and support and the support of the family during her lifetime, but at her death the said land with its proceeds shall be the property of our little son Jesse P. Norris.

2nd. Also all money, notes and accounts that I may have I give to my wife Elizabeth with which she will pay my debts if any.

3rd. And as to all other property such as household, stock, &c. with a negro girl which my wife had at our marriage and for which I then gave her a quit claim title or written contract with a condition thereto which she holds specifying the whole matter, which I never claimed nor do claim as my right or personal property farther than the use and control of it for my support and the family according to the contents set forth in the sd contract, all which I have nothing to do with or say here, but that she my wife dispose and manage it at her own discretion. Now as I believe that what is set forth in the above items to be justice and the same has been my will and plan for a number of years back. Because all the personal property and about two hundred dollars in notes and money I obtained with her my wife. The money with what I added to it about the same. We laid out for land - as such she is justly entitle to a home of her own when I am gone.

In testimony of this my last will and testament I hereunto subscribe my name this 25th day of June in the year of our Lord Eighteen hundred and fifty and fifty-six.
