Barrillon Excepted) Shall not enjoy the property which I have left unto them until their Mother should be married or dead, and if Catherine my wife should show to be insane in a greater Degree that she now is, I leave to the wisdom of my executor to employ the produce of the property to the best advantage of the children.----I also give and bequeath all my property in France to my Sister Jane, or her lawfull heirs according to the laws of France.----- It is my desire and wish that in case my Son John N. to the payment of my Debts, and if any over plus should remain to be divided in three equal parts, between my Son Francis N. Barrillon, my son Charles C. Barrillon and my Daughter Catherine Barrillon.---- I do make and constitute and appoint John Bryce sole executor of this my last will and testament, and guardian of all my children and in case of his death or removal from this State, I appoint James Young (the miller in Columbia) as executor of this my last will and testament in lieu of John Bryce.--- As John Bryce in my life time was the best friend I had I hope that he will begin to pay my Debts due ptp others by the produce of the debts due me and the produce of the Sale of my personal Property even to make advance if it cannot be helped and to pay himself after by therent of the property, this is the only way I know to save the property for the children as concerning Jas. Young I consider him as my next friend after Jno. Bryce, I have no doubt but he will do his best to perform this my will and particularly the above clause.--- It is also my wife and desire that my Son Francis N. Barrillon should be bond to some kind of bussiness, a trade I consider the most advantageous, and as Francis past Twelve years old he should be bond very soon, my son Charles C. Barrillon, must not be bond later than Twelve yearsold, but Sooner if possible, and in case my wife should mary, none of my children to remain with her, but to be bond to the choice of my executor and guardian for them, and in case my executor should think it for the best advantage of my daughter Catherine Barrillon, that she be better from her mother, she shall be taken from her and bond if necessary I recommand my Daughter to Mrs Young the wife of Jas. Young I do believe it is for the best of my children to be taken very soon from their mother, for she is not able to rise them, as as she often drinks to Antoxication and has shown often signs of insanity which is often in the latter part of the last quarter

I give and bequeath unto my wife Catherine as her own property three silver table spoons, Six silver tea Spoons, a bed and furniture, Four chairs, three pots, one Teakettle, 1pr. Tongs and Shovel, 1pr.
