

WILL OF HENRY GOOSMOUL

In the Name of God, Amen. This Nineteenth Day of February in the Year of our Lord God One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four. I Henry Goosmoul, being very sick and weak in body, but of perfect Memory (thanks be to God for the same) and calling to Mind the Mortality of my Body, and knowing that it is appointed for all Men once to die, do make this my last Will and Testament --- And I leave my Body to be buried in a Christian lyke Manner. At the Discretion of my Executors and first I give and recommend my Soul into the Hands of the Almighty God that gave it, nothing doubting but, at the general Resurrection, I shall receive the same by the Almighty Power of God. And I do leave my earthly Estate in Manner and Form following. And first I give to ^{my} dearly beloved Wife Mohaner Coosmoul the Third of my Estate, and her Saddle and Bridle, and one Bed and Furniture. Likewise I give and bequeath to my beloved Wife's Son David Myer one Black Colt to him and his Heirs forever. Likewise I give to my Son John Coosmoul one Tract of Land lying in Amelia Township, and the best of my Horses and Cattle and Hogs that is not disposed of, and the Money that is due to me is to pay my Debts, and the Remainder is to be equally divided between my Wife and my Son, -- And the moveable Part of which is willed to my Son is to be sold, and the Money to be let out at Interest till my Son is of Age. And if my Wife dies what I have willed to her is to be returned to my Son and David Myer, which is to be equally divided between them both. And if my Son dies without Heirs all that is willed to him is to be returned to my Wife. And reposing especial Trust and Confidence in my Wife and Martin Stadler do make and ordain them as Executors of this my last Will and Testament, the Day and Year above-written.
