

WILL OF
JAMES GREEN HUNT

I James Green Hunt; make this my will in manner following-

To Col. Thomas Taylor of Columbia I give all the negroes which I received from his estate by reason of my marriage with his Daughter, with their increase, and with my negroes Eve Phoebe and Anthony, the last to be free at Col. Taylor's death.

All the rest of my Estate- my Maryland Estate excepted- I devise and bequeath One Moiety to the Children of Col. Taylor in equal portions, the other ^{Moiety} to my brother William Pitt Hunt in equal portions, to them and their Heirs.

And I appoint the said Col. Taylor my friends Captain James Taylor, John Taylor Esq. of Columbia, and my brother William Pitt Hunt Executors of this my will, and I give them Power to sell such parts of the Real Estate of my Estate both real and personal, after the legacy to Col. Taylor as may be necessary for the payments of my debts.
