I give and devise to my daughters Elizabeth Gardner wife of Samuel Gardner, Charlotte Anderson wife of

----- Anderson, Sarah Stack, Mary Keibler wife of Jacob Keibler, and Jane R. Stack, and their heirs respectively forever share and share alike, all the rest, residue and remainder of my lands in said State, but if any of my said daughters should die in my life time leaving child or children living at the time of my death, it is my will and desire that the portion or share devised in this clause to such daughters shall go to such child or children share and share alike forever.

th
7. I give and bequeath to my above named sons and daughters to be equally divided between them share and share alike all the rest residue and remainder of my negro slaves, but if any one of my sons or daughters should die in my life time leaving child or children living at the time of my death, it is my will and desire that the portion or share bequeathed in this clause to such son or daughter shall go to such child or children share and share alike.

th
8. I give and bequeath, after the death of my beloved wife, to my said sons and daughters to be equally divided between them share and share alike, the five negro slaves in the third clause herein bequeathed to my wife during the term of her natural life, with the future issue of any females thereof, but if any one of my said sons or daughters should die in the life time of my wife leaving child or children living at the time of her death, it is my will and desire that the portion or share bequeathed in this clause to such son or daughter shall go to such child or children share and share alike.

th
9. It is my will and desire that the rest residue and remainder of my personal estate be sold at public auction, and that the proceeds of such sale together with my choaes in action and ready money, after the payment of what few debts I may happen to owe, be equally divided between my
