J. H. Blasingame,

J. J. W. Cray,
Arch. B. Calvert.

I am
State of South Carolina,
To wit, to whom there present was come or be made known or not one the same may in anywise concern, I, John H.

Blasingame, Sheriff of the County of Spartanburg, in the said State, send greeting: Whereas Claude C. Turner, on or about the 10th day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty three, did exhibit his complaint, in the Court of Common Pleas, in the County of Spartanburg, State aforesaid, where in Claude C. Turner was plaintiff and Francis Montez, et al were defendants, for further reference, as judgment shall. And the same being at issue before the Honorable the Court aforesaid, came on to be heard on the fourth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty three, where the said Court, after a full hearing thereof, and mature deliberation, in the premises, did order, adjudge and decree that the tract or parcel of land hereinafter mentioned and described, should be sold at public and in by the Sheriff of the County of Southampton, on the terms and for the purposes mentioned in said several orders, by reference thereto, on file in the said Court with the said Sheriff. And the said Sheriff, after having duly advertised the said tract or parcel of land for sale by public outcry, on the fourth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty three, did then, openly and publicly according to the custom of auction, sell and dispose of the said tract of land before described, unto S. J. McCrory and Arch B. Calvert, for the sum of Four hundred and five dollars, he being at that price, the highest bidder for the same. Now it is now bid, and the said Sheriff in consideration of the premises, and also in consideration of the sum of Four hundred and five dollars paid in by the said S. J. McCrory and Arch B. Calvert, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, has granted, bargained, sold and released, and by these presents do grant bargain sell and release unto the said S. J. McCrory & Arch B. Calvert, and their heirs and assigns, all that tract or parcel of land lying and being in the State and County of Virginia, in Green Anchor Township, and known as the "Long Neck Place", bounded by lands of Anne Watson, George Devine and the Sherbott farm and lands of Francis Montjoy, and containing one hundred and fifty acres, more or less.

Together with all and singular the rights, manors, tenements, and appurtenances whatsoever to the said tract or parcel of land, belonging, or in anywise appertaining, and the revenues and rents, issues and profits thereof, and all the estate, right, title, interest, power, privilege, property, benefit, claim and demand, what soever both at law and in equity, of the said Francis Montjoy, and of all the parties to the said suit, and of all other parties rightfully claiming or to claim the same or any part thereof by, from or under them or either of them. To have and to hold the said tract or parcel of land, with its hereditaments, privileges and appurtenances unto the said S. J. McCrory and Arch B. Calvert, their heirs and assigns forever. In testimony whereof I the said J. H. Blauengame, Sheriff, under and virtue of the said decree have hereunto set my hand and seal at Springfield, this 27th day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Eighty three, and in the 107th year of the Sovereignty and Independence of the United States of America.

Sealed & delivered.

in Presence of

J. H. Basingame & Co.

State of South Carolina,
County of Spartanburg:
Be it remembered, that on this 20th day of June, 1861, the following Certificate of Incorporation was filed for record in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas and Sessions of the County of Spartanburg, to-wit:

Plains game signified no more than a deer or doe killed in the wilderness, was what the Indians called Wild Game, and included in species through which I am to believe that 27th days of June, 1855.
