Haltzelaw & Harris Assignment

John Earle Bomar

The State of South Carolina
County of Spartanburg
Know all men by these presents.

Whereas, we, John M. Haltzelaw and J. Mack Harris, partners trading in the City of Spartanburg and in the County and State aforesaid, under the firm name and style of Haltzelaw & Harris, are indebted to diverse persons in considerable sums of money, which we are not able to pay in full; and whereas we are desirous of having the assets and property of said firm collected and faithfully applied to the payment of our debts and for that purpose are desirous of conveying said assets and property for the benefit of our creditors without any preference or priority whatsoever.

Now, therefore, in consideration of the sum of one dollar in hand paid by John Earle Bomar to us, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the said John M. Haltzelaw and J. Mack Harris, partners trading under the firm name and style of Haltzelaw & Harris, have granted, bargained, sold, released, assigned, transferred and set over, and by these presents do grant, bargain, sell, release, assign, transfer and set over unto the said John Earle Bomar and to his heirs and assigns forever all the goods, chattels, merchandise, bills, bonds, notes, books, accounts, claims, demands, claims in action, judgments, widows of debt and property of every name and nature whatsoever which said firm has or owns of said property we herewith attach a Schedule, which we believe to be a full and true statement of same, but in case any property of any kind whatsoever owned by said firm is omitted from same, such property is to pass under this assignment as fully as if specifically mentioned therein.

We have and to hold the same and every part and parcel thereof with the appurtenances
