Alfred Parris
to Didami Parris.

Deed:

the State of South Carolina.

Know all men by these presents that I, Alfred Parris, in consideration of the sum of Five Dollars to me paid by Didami Parris, of the County of Spartanburg, in the State aforesaid, and in consideration of the fact that the money paid to Martin and Jane Quinn in 1859 for the tract of land hereinafter mentioned and described, was money belonging solely and entirely to the said Didami Parris, being devised from his father's estate, and whereas the said money never came into my possession, and whereas the said Didami Parris has been in sole and undisputed possession and control of said land, claiming it as his own in fee simple for fourteen years, and whereas during the year A.D. 1879, being desirous of removing every cloud that might be upon the title of said Didami Parris to said land, and in order to convey to said Didami Parris that which of right belonged to him, I signed and executed to said Didami Parris a deed to said land, but omitted, through inadvertence, to affix a seal to my name, and desiring to perfect said Deed, I the said Alfred Parris, of the County of Union, in the State of aforesaid, have granted, bargained, sold and released, and by these presents do grant, bargain, and sell and release unto the said Didami Parris, all that certain piece, parcel, or tract of land, situate, lying and being in the County of Spartanburg, and State of aforesaid, on water of Gilkey's creek, containing One Hundred and Forty-three acres, more or less, bounded by lands belonging to the estate of Jaran Jennings, deceased, Daniel Anthony, Mrs. Fannie Cory and others. Said tract or parcel of land, being the same conveyed to me by Martin and Jane Quinn on the day of January, A.D., 1859, and recorded in the Office of the Register of Deeds Conveyances for Spartanburg County, then District in Book "G.L." page 38. Together with all and singular the rights, members, hereditaments and appurtenances to the said premises belonging, or in anywise incident or appertaining.

To have all and singular the premises before mentioned unto the said Didami Parris, her heirs and assigns forever.

And I do hereby bind myself, my heirs, Executors and Administrators to warrant and forever defend all and singular the said premises unto the said Didami Parris, her heirs and assigns, against me and my heirs, or any others lawfully claiming, or to claim the same, or my part thereof.

Witness my hand and seal this 24th day of July, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty-three, and in the One Hundred and Eighty-year of the Sovereignty and Independence of the United States of America.

Signed, sealed and delivered.
