

In the name of God. Amen. I Anthony Lee of Sumter District in the State of South Carolina being sick and debilitated in body, but blest with reason and understanding an impaired, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament.

First. It is my desire that my body should be decently buried without expense or parade. To the merciful hand of my all-gracious, faithful God and Redeemer I commit my immortal Soul.

Secondly. It is my will and desire that, out of the property with which it has pleased Heaven to blefs me, all my lawful debts should be paid.

Thirdly. It is my will, that, after the payment of my debts, my dear and beloved wife Jemmima Lee should have a third of all the remaining property and that she should take the two thirds of the household furniture designed for my children and divide it among them as she may think proper - giving James Lee a good bed and furniture.

Fourthly. It is my will and desire that after my beloved wife has gotten her third, the rest of the property should be equally divided among my two Sons, William and Timothy Lee, and my four daughters, Ann Spears, Mary Jones, Elizabeth and Martha Lee, and that the share falling to my said daughter, Ann Spears, should belong ^{Rev} exclusively to be and the heirs of her body not subject to be taken or disposed of by her husband or any other person.

Sixthly. It is my will that my Executors should sell the land on which I now live and pay my debts out of the present, thereof, before any of the other property is sold.

Seventhly. I nominate and appoint my two Sons, William Lee and Timothy Lee Executors of this my last Will and Testament. In testimony whereof I set my hand and seal this ninth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five. Signed, sealed and declared in the presence of.
