

Know all men by these presents:

That I, Margia Wilson of Bowling Green in the County of York State of South Carolina, feeling the infirmities of age, but of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this my last will and testament in the manner and form following, to-wit:

To my three grand daughters, Lizzie (Petty) Sitton, Ida Ruth Petty and Josie V. Petty (each share and share alike) their heirs and assigns forever. I give bequeath and devise my one half undivided interest in my home tract of land, (the other one half interest being property of estate of my daughter Laura Petty deceased) known as the Margia Wilson home place, this one half interest consisting of about sixty three acres, same being part of the Edward Wilson lands, situate in County of York, State of South Carolina, near Bowling Green.

To my grand daughter Bertie W. Petty, I give bequeath and devise one Thousand Dollars invested with W. C. Petty in the real estate known as the Nolan land, situated in Gaston County, State of North Carolina, near Pleasant Ridge.

I hereby constitute and appoint my son-in-law, William C. Petty executor of my will.
