

David Wade - Sarah - R10986

State of South Carolina, Greenville District. 29 Nov 1855, Critty Dacus, age 53, daughter and heir at law of David Wade, stated that she could not describe the services of her father exactly but that he served not less than 3 years. She is claiming a pension for the surviving heirs of her father: Noah Wade, Tabitha Wade, Sarah Wade, Solomon Wade. That her father David Wade died 23 July 1808, that her mother Sarah Wade was born 18 Feb 1759 and was married to David Wade 23 July 1775. Her mother's name before her marriage was Sarah Angelan (?); she died 8 July 1842.

Caroline Henderson, age 25, and Martha B. Moore, age 62, said they were present when Sarah Wade died.

30 Nov 1855, statement of John T. Ligon and Thomas E. Harrison that they were acquainted with David Wade Sr. and his wife Sarah Wade from their earliest recollection until their death, and that they lived together as man and wife.

Among other records was a list of the Wade children, on a piece of paper:

Children of David and Sarah Wade and their birthdates were:

Tabitha Wade daughter of David and Sary Wade was born September the 22nd day 1790.

Sarah Wade was born November the 6th day 1793.

Solomon Wade was born 22nd day of February 1797.

Elijah Waid was born November the 15th day 1799.

Critty Wade was born March the 22nd day 1802.

Another paper said "Recd Oct 10 1781 of David Wade 1 musket and cartonet (?) box.

Signed: John Rutherford, Adj. QM.

Also this comment: See the family data on file in claim of Nathaniel Dacus, father in law of Crittey Dacus. S File 21153 refers to this family also.

Claim rejected - no proof of service.