Elizabeth Adams & Sarah A. Reynolds Will.

State of South Carolina. In the Name of God Amen
We Elizabeth Adams and Sarah A. Reynolds, to prevent family dispute, and dispose of all that we may dispose of directly or indirectly make this our last Will and Testament. Sincerely the late William Reynolds, the honored husband of me the said Sarah A.
Reynolds, by his last Will gave me a plantation and a Child part of his personal estate, and appointed me his executrix of his Will, which I proved and understood to execute, But the plantation which he devised to me, as well as all there in his possession in his lifetime, was my own inheritance, and did not pass by his Will;
and in the education and maintenance of the family our estates as well as his have been strictly and steadily applied, and have also borne a large part of the Charge of his debts and many other debts for the common benefit are still outstanding, and will have to be provided for by us, all the Children have received their full Share of his estate. In these circumstances no just or equal distribution can be made except by considering the whole as one property, and regarding all that has been expended as laid out and expended by us out of our own. Therefore we make this Will to declare that it is our intention to put the whole property to be considered for the purpose of a final Settlement whatever the Children have received by partition of their father's estate as advances made by us, and to dispose of the residue on the Supposition that they have been equally advanced, and that our grand daughter Henriette Reynolds Townsend is sufficiently provided for, Considering the Circumstances of the family by this Mother's Settlement, We order things to be effectuated these intentions, I the said Elizabeth Adams, in case the said Sarah A. Reynolds should survive me, give her all my estate, and in case she should die before me, I give it to the same uses, intents and purposes as she by this Will makes of her estate And if the said Sarah A. Reynolds give all my estate including every thing that I may become entitled to by the foregoing bequest in case I should survive my Mother, as follows the said says
