Francis Boykin Will

I Francis Boykin, being Sick and weak of body but of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding have now determined to direct what disposition shall be made of my property after my decease; and after maturely considering the circumstances and condition of all those among whom as my heirs at Law, or the objects of my affection, in my judgment, my estate shall be distributed, I do make publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making null, also void all former wills and testaments, writings in the nature of last will and testaments by me heretofore made. — And my will is first that after my decease, all my just debts shall be paid by my Executors and Executors hereafter named. — And as to the residue of my Estate and property, I give, devise, and dispose thereof as follows, to wit, to my wife Mary, Bel and her six children, Jenny, Field, Sept Susanah, Harriet, Sab, old, & the Dikra and four children, Ridy and her four children, Diner and her five children, and Isaac, her husband, Hicks Adkins, and Nelson Lee, her husband, Ailey, James and Margaret to have and to the same to her heirs Executors and Administrators to her and their use and behoof forever. Also my dwelling house, place and house hold furniture, and Eight Acres of land upon which said house is situate and connected therewith likewise that tract of land known as the Bagget tract Carriage and chaise horses, to have and to hold the same for and during her natural life time. — It is also my will, that the necessary provisions from the plantation of my Estate be furnished, the dwelling-house herein bequeathed to my wife Mary, as during my life, com and passes be supplied her Bagget tract from said plantation for and during the term of years after my decease I give and bequeath to my Sons, Germill and Frank Eight Thousand Dollars each to be furnished them by my Executors and Executors, as soon as the outstanding claims against the Estate are settled, and the Estate can realise said amount. — I give and bequeath to my four sons, James, Robert, Sam Thomas, and Wayne, the rest and residue of my Estate, real personal and mixed of which I shall be seized and possessed at the time of my decease, to be equally divided among them — share and share alike, to have unto to hold the same to his or their heirs, Executors, administrators and assigns to his or their use and behoof forever. It is my will further, that negroes shall be purchased by my Executors and Executors, to cultivate the Bonnes Strath of land, as fast as the estate shall be able to furnish funds. And I do nominate and appoint my sons Samuel and Frank to be my Executors, and my wife Mary, and sister Elizabeth I Hunter, to be my Executors, of this my last will and testament. In testimony whereof I hereunto subscribe my name, and affix my seal.

Signed Sealed and delivered by the said Francis Joykin Francis Joykin to be his last will and testament in the presence of us who have in his presence subscribed our names as witnesses hereunto this 5th Augst 1839
