Landon C. French's Will

In the name of God Amen I Landon C. French of the State of Alabama Dallas County planter being of sound and disposing mind, and mindful that it is appointed unto all men once to die, do make ordain and declare this to be my last Will and Testament hereby revoking and annulling all other Wills and testaments by me made. First I give my soul to God that gave it to me, and my body at my death I give to the ground to be interred in a christian manner and to my worldly effects I give and bequeath them in the following manner. My just debts and funeral expences being first paid. I give and bequeath unto my wife Ann Eliza French all my real Estate lying north of Pine Barron Creek to be remain owned and possessed by her forever and to be disposed of at her death by Will or otherwise as she may think proper.
I give and bequeath unto my step daughter Mary Frances Foster the one half of all my real Estate situate and being on the South side of Pine Barron Creek. I give and bequeath unto my Son William John French the one half of all my real Estate situate and lying on the South side of Pine Barron Creek to be equally divided between them when either of them shall marry or come to mature age, and in the event either of them should die before Marriage or mature age, then the respective share of the deceased shall devise to the other; but if either of them should die after Marriage and mature age they shall have the exclusive Control and disposition of their Estate. It is my Will and desire that the plantation should be kept up and that the negroes should all be continued together in the cultivation of the same until my wife shall wish to have her interest separated, or during her widowhood and in either of these events, should she wish to have her separated interest or marry, then my Estates (personal) containing negroes horses cattle hogs mules &c. household furniture and indeed except the following named slaves which I give and bequeath to my Son William John French over and above his equal portion of the remainder
