

Inventory of property belonging to the Estate of W. J. Anderson, deceased, and set apart to Mrs. E. Anderson, Widow & Relict, is filed by Appraisers, Vinson Kennemore, Hardy Keel and George Williams, included Household and Kitchen furniture, clock, cattle, 1 horse, corn, wheat, fodder, hogs, 1 gun, 3 plows and gear and 1 man's saddle.

The total amount was listed as $323.50.
Inventory of notes and Accounts belonging to the Estate of W. J.
Anderson:

Note on M. C. Dryer	$73.50
" Grove Sammons	20.60
" W. C. Maples	92.55
Cr. by cash when due	$40.00
" J. O. Adams	5.75
" Bartlett Anderson	50.00
With a Cr of	$4.00
One other note on same	26.25
" Note William Butler	32.90
" Samuel Mead	80.63
Cr by	$46.00
" W. Whitaker	35.90
" J. B. Anderson	7.46
" J. H. Stephens	42.88
" H. W. Hill	54.56
" J. B. Derrick	30.00
" Edward Maples	38.00

All of the above notes due 24th Jany 1857.

On 9 July 1858, S. E. Kennamore, Admr. of the Estate of W. J. Anderson comes before Judge J. H. Norwood, to say that the above is a true and correct statement of the notes and accounts of the above Estate.

ELIZA VANN Estate

The Appraisement of the Estate of Eliza Vann is presented, including Household items such as feather beds, churns, tubs and pails, as well as horses, cows, hogs, corn, fodder, wheat, farm equipment and six brooms, totaling $382.20. Appraised by Bradford Smith, Anderson Nichols, and Elison Toon.