

Will of Lewellen Jones - In the name of God amen, I Lewellen Jones of Madison County, Madison County, Alabama Territory being of sound mind, do make this my last will and testament in manner and form following, viz: to my beloved daughter Frances A. M. Perkins, I give and bequeath that tract of land lying on Spring Creek in Lawrence County, Alabama Territory, containing seven hundred and thirty four acres and twenty hundredths acres on which I have made one payment. That is, I give and bequeath unto my beloved daughter Frances A. M. Perkins all my right and title to the said tract of land not interacting to make any other payment on it. To her and the heirs of her body forever, furthermore, to my beloved daughter Frances A. M. Perkins I give and bequeath the sum of three thousand seven hundred and seventy seven dollars fifty cents to her and her heirs forever, and no more, having given her other valuable property in Negroes previous to this in the state of Virginia. After all my just debts are paid, I give and bequeath unto my two well beloved sons, John N. S. Jones and Alexander P. Jones to them and their heirs forever, all the remainder of my estate both real and personal, my land, monies, bonds, Negroes, plantation interests, horses, hogs, cattle, household and kitchen furniture to be equally divided between them, deducting two thousand dollars from the portion of my eldest son John N. S. Jones, which I give and bequeath to my son, Alexander P. Jones, to him and his heirs forever. Lastly I do appoint my eldest son John N. S. Jones and ? Scruggs ? both of Madison County, Alabama Territory, executors of this my last will and testament. In writing whereof I have hereunto affixed my hand and seal this 20th day of October 1818. Signed and acknowledged in the presence of Benjamin W. Burford, William A. Powell, Henry Moore.
