

G. A. Wyche, Joseph Holloway and Martha Flynt were present with Mrs. Louisa P. Sullivan in her last illness and shortly before her death on 7 Dec 1850. They witnessed her last request concerning her estate and made a nuncupative will: After her debts were paid one half of her property to be given her husband Larkin P. Sullivan. The other half be given her sisters: Sophia, Jane and Sarah McCan, to be divided equally between them but a negro woman named Matilda to belong to her sister Sophia.

Dated 11 Dec 1850

Signed Geo. A. Wyche

Martha Flynt

Joseph Holiday

Madison Co Probate Court 13 January 1851.

Proven: 9 May 1851 and recorded in M.B. 1 page 351

Filed in M.B. 1 P 351

Recorded: 9 April 1851