The negro man Henry the property of his ward due to David W. Starnott of Wilcox County due 1st Aug 1844 for 75 00
This said Henry the property of his ward was sold by said Guardian for bad conduct in this that in winter 1843 he ran away from the employment of Druggists & Surgeon to whom he had been hired for that year with a white woman with whom the Guardian was advised he had been & was too intimate and fearing that if retained he might probably be again induced to go off in the same or some other man and thereby become a loss to his ward - The Guardian thought it most advisable and was advised by others to sell him which was done as above stated - though without authority from this court the Guardian need however ~~admit~~ render the circumstances, prays the court to confirm by its decree - said sale and thereby authorize him to make such title to said Starnitt as will secure the property to said Starnitt from any and all claims of his said ward - and release the Guardian from further responsibility on account of said woman coming to his hands as the property of this said ward - being responsible to her and to this court for the price for which sale as above stated -

John Starnitt

John Starnitt Guardian of said Sarah Ellen being sworn deposes that the above report of him of his wards wages for the year 1843 is correct - and further the facts stated in above petition showing said George Henry is also substantially true - as he believes partly from his own knowledge & partly from facts & circumstances communicated by others -
