I, Jeremiah Lolley of Shelby County, State of Alabama, do make and publish this my last will and testament hereby declaring and settling some all a the several debts by me at any time heretofore made and first I direct that my body be lawfully interred at any place my wife or my children please and as to such worldly estate as it hath pleased God to intrust me with I dispose of the same as follows

First I direct that all my debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my decease as possible out of the first money that shall come into the hands of my executor from any portion of my estate real or personal. I shall hereafter give to my daughter Catharine Gallaway a negro girl named Bart about six years old her other personal property of the value of seventy dollars I have also given to my daughter Permelia take one negro girl named Betty about six years old and personal property of the value of twenty dollars these gifts shall be in full and I am contented & also give and bequeath to my daughter Rebecca Lolley a negro girl named Rebecca and other personal property of the value of twenty dollars whomever she marry out of the rest of my estate both real & personal I give to my beloved wife Nancy and the survivors of my children (to wit) Charles Lolley, John Lolley, Martha Lolley, Ann Lolley and John Lolley the portion of my estate which I desire for my wife to have is for her and the childrens use and is all to remain in the possession of my wife and as any of my children the last five named shall become of age or marry I wish them to have property equivalent to that given to the first three provided in this will But provided my wife should marry again and it should appear evident to my executor that a considerable portion of my estate left in the hands of my wife is likely to be wasted or dissipated from my first named children as above named then I wish all my estate then remaining to be sold and to be divided between my wife & children giving to my wife one sixth part of all the property left in her hands at my death and the increase thereof to the time of such partition and the rest to equally divided amongst all my children first giving the first named as above mentioned an equal portion with the three above and then if there is any residue to be equally divided amongst all my children I wish my wife & children to continue their residence on the Green Meadows tract of land lying west of the Clayton Road and wish all that part of my land lying east of the Clayton road that lies west of the fence running a little north of my old residence & within Shasha Lolley now live to be added to the Green Meadows tract as part of my homestead for my wife & children the remainder of my land lying east of the Clayton Road I wish to be sold on due & two years credit at any such time as my executor shall deem most advantageous for my estate and I hereby empower and authorize my executor to make such title for all the lands they may sell as may be proper and necessary. And I do hereby make and declare my father-in-law William Pitts and my esteemed friend Jacob Perry of Shelby County executor of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I, Jeremiah Lolley the testator have to this will written and that of paper set my hand & seal this 8th day of July in the year of our Lord and three and eight hundred forty eight
