In Probate Court of

Washington County Alabama.

To the Honorable D. J. Long, Judge of Probate in and for said County:-

Your petitioner, Mrs. Fannie Belle Hurt, respectfully represents unto your honor that, she is the widow of the late W. F. Hurt, deceased, and the administratrix of the estate of said decedent, under letters of administration issued out of the honorable Probate Court of said Washington County; that the estate of said decedent consists largely of money now on deposit in the City Bank and Trust Company of Mobile, Alabama, and is subject to your petitioner's check ~~as administratrix, when endorsed by the authorized agent of the surety~~ on her bond. Your petitioner further shows unto your honor that said W. F. Hurt, deceased, left surviving, herself, and two minor children of said decedent, William Fay Hurt and Edwin Hurt, and that she claims as exempt from administration, for the maintenance of herself and said minor children, the sum of One thousand dollars as provided in Section 4200 of the Code of Alabama, and hereby selects the sum of One thousand dollars of said money on deposit as aforesaid as her said exemption for herself and said minor children. Said money being on deposit and subject to check as aforesaid, your petitioner is advised that the appointment of commissioners for the setting apart of said exemption is wholly unnecessary, and she respectfully prays your honor to enter an order directing that the sum of One Thousand dollars of the said money of said estate on deposit as aforesaid, be and the same is set apart as exempt from administration, for the maintenance of petitioner and the said minor children of the said W. F. Hurt, deceased, as provided by law.

Personally appeared before me, J. M. Dickinson

a Notary Public, in and for said county in said State, Allen P.

Pruitt, known to me, who first being sworn doth depose and say:

That the estate of W. F. Hurt, deceased, is due him the sum of $325.00 for borrowed money, with interest from June, 1st, 1911. That said money was loaned to said decedent and his estate in two different loans. $150.00 of which was sent him to Cambria, Wyoming, on or about the 26th day of April, 1911, and the other remaining $175.00 was given to his wife, Mrs. Fannie Belle Hurt, during the early days of June, 1911, which was to be used to defray his hospital and funeral expenses. That all of said money of $325.00 is due and unpaid.

Deponent further states upon information and belief that all of said money was used in defraying the expenses of decedent's last sickness and his funeral expenses. That decedent was confined to a hospital in Edgewater, Colorado, for a few weeks before his death and that his remains were brought to Marion, Alabama, and interred.

That the expense necessarily involved in these transactions were heavy, and that the deponent furnished the above mentioned moneys for the said purposes.

Further deponent saveth not.

That she is the widow of W.F. Hurt, deceased, and is his duly appointed affairs, having derived such information by actual knowledge concerning same, and by conversations with him.

That she knows the claim of Allen P. Pruitt against the estate of said decedent for $325.00 is a just, true and correct claim, and is unpaid. That said claim is for borrowed money, which was used in defraying the expenses of said decedent's last sickness and his funeral expenses. That said decedent died in Edgewater, Colorado, in a hospital, after having been confined to his room there for a few weeks, and that his remains were brought to Marion, Alabama, and interred.
That deponent handled the $325.00, which is the consideration of the above claim, and knows that it was actually received and used as above set out.

Deponent further says that she know the claim of Mrs. Sarah E. Ricknell for $300.00 is a just, true and correct claim, and that it is due and unpaid. That she knows that the decedent had acknowledged the indebtedness represented by said claim, and was anxious that it be paid.

This is to certify that during the month of August 1909 I negotiated loan for Mrs. Fannie Bell Hurt for $5000.00 on her Real Estate in Bessemer, Alabama.

Mrs. Hurt making written application for said loan, same was made by Franklin T. Ives, of Meriden Connecticut and proceeds were deposited to credit of Mrs. F. B. Hurt in the Bessemer National Bank, Bessemer, Alabama, and later I noticed checks drawn by Mrs. F.B. Hurt payable to order of W.F. Hurt for a large portion of proceeds of said loan.
