The Marriage Book records ceased with Book B, in the latter part of 1861, so the above list is probably incomplete for that year. Record keeping resumed in 1864.

Augustus Buchanan-Emily Pierson	Martha Coldwell(Quinton)
Maurice Coffee-Ellen Flynn	Franky Cosby(Randolph)
	Elizabeth Davis(Sensebaugh)
Samuel Gilbreath-Samanthy W....	Mary Finley(Harp)
	Ellen Flynn(Coffee)
John Harp-Mary Finley
George Herndon-Mary Hutchinson	Samanthy H...(Gilbreath)
Francis Hewitt-Matilda Sisco	Margaret Hicks(Payne)
William Hixon-Mary Mayfield	Mary Hutchinson(Herndon)
John Ish-Martha Phillips	Manervy Lewis(Temple)
Abraham Mackey-Manda Sinkler	Mary Mayfield(Hixon)
Thomas Marrs-Lavina Smith	Mary McCoy(Zellner)
John Payne-Margaret Hicks	Martha Phillips(Ish)
	Emily Pierson(Buchanan)
Alfred Quinton-Martha Coldwell	Susan Rainwater(Smith)
George Randolph-Franky Cosby	Manda Sinkler(Mackey)
Christian Sensebaugh-Elizabeth Davis	Matilda Sisco(Hewitt)
Richard Smith-Susan Rainwater	Levina Smith(Marrs)
Francis Temple-Manervy Lewis
William Zellner-Mary McCoy

Since the marriage records were not kept for the War years of 1862 and 1863, these two lists consist only of entries in the Washington county books following the resumption of record keeping in 1864. Undoubtedly a good many marriages during the wartime were never entered in the books.

The 1862 marriage of Maurice Coffee and Ellen Flynn was not entered in the Washington county books until January, 1868, more than five years late; the certification then being made by the Reverend Patrick Reilly, Fort Smith, Arkansas.

Fortunately, the marriage records, along with other Washington county papers were preserved from destruction or loss by concealment in Fincher's cave during the period of greatest disturbance brought on by the War.

Even without the war situation, officials were not always prompt in recording marriages. A minister might perform several ceremonies over a period of weeks, or even months, then record them all at one time. Occasionally entries are brought in a year, or two or three years after the date of the marriage. One wonders if death, removal, or just plain forgetfulness on the part of the minister or justice of the peace might have accounted for failure to find the record of a marriage. . . .

William Blevins-Catherine Hilton	Sarah Akin(Reed)
Elias Granick-America Smith
Sylvanus Cartwright-Jane Linly	Mary Benton(Cross)
John Cross-Mary Tenton	Malinda Butler(Ritter)
Young Ewing-Lucinda Chandler	Sarah Butler(Wooten)
William Fletcher-Martha Cole	Lucinda Chandler(Ewing)
	Martha Cole(Fletcher)
Sidney Homesly-Nancy Sanders	Catherine Hilton(Blevins)
	Emily Hodges(Webber)
Joel Jones-Mary Sublett	Eliza Jones(Lewis)
	Catherine Reed(Wakefield)
Daniel Lewis-Eliza Jones	Martha Rutherford(Lofton)
Meredith Lofton-Martha Rutherford
Frances Mannon-Margaret Taylor	Nancy Sanders(Homesly)
Frederic McGee-Tabitha Wood	America Smith(Branick)
William Meiers-Elizabeth Winkels	Mary Sublett(Jones)
Lewis Reed-Sarah Akin	Margaret Taylor(Mannon)
William Ritter-Malinda Butler
Henry Wakefield-Catherine Reed	Elizabeth Winkels(Meiers)
William Wooten-Sarah Butler
John Webber-Emily Hodges	Tabitha Wood(McGee)
	*Jane Linly(Cartwright)

It is apparent that this 1863 list of late entries does not include many marriages that must have taken place in this war year. The 1864 list that follows is likewise limited, partly because recording started late, and in part due to the continuing war. It will be noted that the postwar, 1865 record lists many more marriages.

At this time there was no law to compel the registration of marriages, even though such recording was a prescribed duty of the County Clerk. A marriage license was not a requirement until 1875. The first recorded marriage for which a license had been issued occurred on May 3, 1875.

The early licences were inscribed in the record book, verbatim, and in longhand-- a practice that continued until September, 1881, at which time the books appeared with a printed form on which the essential data could be filled in. The wording of the handwritten license is illustrated by the first license in the Washington County book:

"State of Arkansas; County of Washington, ss

To any person authorized by law to solemnize marriage, you are hereby commanded to solemnize the rights and publish the banns of matrimony between H C Riley, aged 31 years and Miss Nancy Williams, aged 25 years, according to law; and do you officially sign and return this license to the parties herein named. Witness my hand and official seal the 3rd day of May, 1875. --- P R Smith, Clerk." (Upon return of the license the certification was entered in the book.)

Minister's Credentials: Most, and perhaps all of the marriages recorded in the Washington County books were performed either by a justice of the peace, or by an ordained minister of any one of the several religious denominations, or by another person--such as Elder or Deacon-- when certified by the particular governing body, or a leader of the religious group:

Apparently, ministers from other states entered their credentials in the local marriage books; from other Arkansas counties, the minister often stated the county where his credentials had been certified. Some of the credentials were given in brief form, simply stating the religious affiliation, the ordination of the person, his experience, and standing in the religious body; signature was by a bishop or accredited committee. Other credentials were more elaborate, and may have been accompanied by several recommendations. The following statement regarding a Deacon is fairly typical:

" Know all men by these presents that I, Robert Paine, one of the bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, under the protection of Almighty God and with a single eye to his glory, by the imposition of my hands and prayer, have this day set apart Martin Thornberry for the office of Deacon in the said Methodist Episcopal Church; a man who in the judgment of the Arkansas Conference is well qualified for the work, and he is hereby recommended to all whom it may concern, as a proper person to administer the ordinance of baptism, marriage, and the burial of the dead in the absence of an Elder; and to feed the flock of Christ so long as his spirit and practice are such as become the gospel of Christ, and he continueth to hold fast to the form of sound words, according to the established doctrines of the Gospel. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this 31st day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, eight hundred and fifty-two.

Done in Cherokee Nation, Clear Spring.

R Paine"

So far as is known, the marriage records for the post-war years, following 1865 have not heretofore been transcribed and published. The compiler of this booklet copied the names for these years, direct from the long-hand entries. Beginning with 1866, the lists will be published in FLASHBACK, in their centennial years.

This completes the first twenty-five years of marriage records for Washington County, Arkansas. Transcribed from Marriage Record Books A, B, & C.

See the introductory page 5 for possible corrections made after a recheck of the books, and the discovery of two or more misplaced pages in the records. Also certain changes (p 6) in the interpretation of names from the hand-written entries. Repeat: There were no book records for 1862-63
Names for these years are from late entries.

POSTSCRIPT

This booklet is a contribution of the Washington County Historical Society toward making available a permanent and accessible record of 19th Century marriages in the county. The marriage list is arranged by years with names in alphabetical order to provide a useful and convenient reference for those concerned with this phase of Washington County history.

If this first booklet appears to meet a need, we will make plans to publish Book 2, which will contain the marriage records for the 1870s. Already the staff people in the County Clerk's office has begun the compilation of names as their part in making the information available.

A complete, certified copy of any marriage entry just as it appears in the county books may be obtained. Send $1.00 for each entry desired to:
Washington County Clerk, Court House,
Fayetteville, Arkansas, 72701

This booklet, No. 49 in the Booklet Series of the Washington County Historical Society sells for $3.00. It is typical of the special publications put out by the Society. Most of the earlier numbers are sold out, however some interesting ones are still available. Write for list.

Membership in the Washington County Historical Society is open to anyone interested. The annual membership fee is $3.00, which entitles members to at least four issues of FLASHBACK, and provides for participation in other historical activities. Single copies of Flashback are $1.00 each.
