

[NOTE.—Daniel Hedges was born in 1709, and died April 12, 1766. He was son of Daniel Hedges, who came from East Hampton before 1728 and purchased a homestead of Daniel Sayre, Jr., which was left by him to his son, Daniel Hedges, the testator. This is at Sagg, on the north side of Hedges' Lane and a little east of the homestead of late Wilkes Hedges, and is left in the will to his son, David Hedges. The homestead left to his son, Stephen Hedge, is on the east side of Sagg street, and is now owned by his descendant, Stephen Hedges. The "Well close" and "Leek Lot" are on the south side of Hedges' Lane. The son David Hedges, better known as "Deacon" Hedges, was one of the most distinguished men in Suffolk County. He was born in 1744, and died November 8, 1817. He was Member of Assembly, 1776-77, 1786-88, and was Supervisor of Southampton for twenty years.—W. S. P.]

Page 225.—"Southampton, July 18, 1765. In the name of God, Amen. I, WILLIAM MULFORD, of the town of Southampton, in Suffolk County, being weak in body." I leave to my wife  $\frac{1}{3}$  of all my estate, except the movables. I leave to my daughter Chloe six acres of land in the south end of my lot called Stanborough lot, and 3 acres in the east side of my home lot, and the privilege of living in my house without molestation while unmarried. I leave to my son William all the rest of my lands, and after paying debts I leave all the rest of my movables to my wife and son. I make my friend, Thomas Topping, and Abraham Cooper, executors.

Witnesses, Nathan Norris, Josiah Stanborough, John Mitchell Cook. Proved, November 1, 1765.

Page 226.—In the name of God, Amen. I, STEPHEN VAN CORTLANDT, of Second River, Essex County, New Jersey, Gent., being in health. I leave to my son Stephen £65. I leave to my wife Cathalina all my houses, mills, and other real estate at Second River, and the use of all personal estate so long a time as she remains my widow. And if my sons, Stephen, Samuel, and Philip, shall see cause to occupy my said real estate, they shall pay to my wife yearly the rent of £150. After the death or marriage of my wife, I leave to my son Samuel all that my Ferry house and ferry over Pissack river, and all that part of my farm on which the ferry house is built, to be 3 chains wide fronting the river, and to run to the west bounds of my farm. Also 15 acres at the "Steenbergh" (Stony Hill), with that part of the brook running through the same, and he is to pay to the rest of my children £100. All the rest of my real estate at Second River I leave to my son Stephen, and he is to pay to his brothers and sisters £300. I leave to my son, John Van Cortlandt, my corner house and  $\frac{1}{2}$  of my lot of ground near the Long Bridge in New York, and he is to pay to his brothers and sisters £100. I leave to my son Philip my other house and  $\frac{1}{2}$  the lot adjoining the corner house. All the rest of my estate I leave to my children, Stephen, Samuel, John, Philip, Johana, Gertruyd, and Sarah. I make my wife Cathalina and my sons executors. November 26, 1756.

Witnesses, Gualtherius Du Bois, Thomas Doughty, Nicholas Bayard, Jr. Proved, June 6, 1766.

[NOTE.—The "corner house near the Long Bridge" is the northeast corner of Broad and Pearl streets, New York, and opposite to Fraunce's Tavern.—W. S. P.]
