John J. Han Pelt, sworn for the Opposing party. - Was acquainted with Abraham Post the Testator upwards of thirty years lived within one or one & half miles from him. — Was in the habit of seeing the said Testator during the fall previous to the date of the Will, — that he had conversations with him, but no dealings at that time. — Q. at that time from your conversation with him, did you consider him competent to ~~make a will~~ transact business, — Objected to by Counsel for Applicants, that the witness must confine himself to facts, not to his opinion. — Ans. The conversations alluded to were merely asking him how he did, but no general conversation, — Witness has made bargains with the Testator, but they were overruled by his children, they were a riot and were made null, — that was some years ago, fully 18 or 20 years. — (Counsel for Applicants, Objects that any matter not happening about the time of the execution of said Will, to be made evidence) for the last 8 or ten years his mind became more impaired, — that he was in the habit of drinking spiritous liquors, more than he ought to at times, that he continued that habit to his last day. at the time he struck bought Wood of him, his wife and Mother said he was not competent to make a bargain. thought him an ignorant man & told him he ought to take him in before they went to the woods.

Q. Is E. S. M. M. M. the part of the charging party. — Says he has been acquainted with the Testator 3 or 4 years, had a transaction with him within those years, in relation to purchasing his Farm. — had several interviews with him but did not get anything, found he was very much under the influence of his son Garret Post. — found he could not do anything in the matter except by his, Garret's, consent. — Testator was very deaf, he had to speak louder than ordinary to make him hear, in talking in an ordinary tone of voice Testator could not understand him, he was eighty years of age. (concurrent with the parties) from my acquaintance with him, took him to be a weak man. — Q. have you heard Garret Post say in your presence that the Testator was not capable of transacting business (Objected to Applicants Counsel). — Ans. don't recollect. — Q. Was the Testator of sound or unsound mind. — Ans. My impression is, his mind was impaired by age and disease. — Q. Was his mind so much impaired in your judgment, that it rendered him incompetent, to know the value of any ordinary property he was acquainted with. — Ans. The Testator was competent to transact some kinds of business and not others, he was competent to buy a pound of sugar or a quart of Molasses, My impression is he was not competent to make a judicious and reasonable Will under the influence of his son, — (Opinion of competency to make a Will objected to by Counsel for Applicants). — about the time of negotiating for the Farm was told by Garret Post, that he could have the Farm for 5500 Dollars, in pursuance of that information he went up to claim the bargain. — Q. Did the daughter of the Testator & Post's wife interfere & prevent the Testator to close the bargain, or what did she plan on that subject. — Ans. having had some conversation with the sons of the Testator relative to said property, and having been told by Garret Post he could have the Farm for 5500 Dollars, he then called on Doct. Harrison and went to the house of the Testator to claim the bargain, the daughter of Testator & Garret Post's wife (who came in after we were there) then interfered and said he ought to have 6000 Dollars, he then told the Testator, it was the last offer they should make him, and he and Doct. — left & went away, Q. Had you & Doct. Harrison in going to Testator's house to visit the house of Garret Post. — Ans. we had. — Signed Ephraim Clark.

Cross examined on the part of the Applicants. — Q. how long have you been acquainted with Testator. — Ans. about ten years. — Q. have you ever conversed with Testator respecting purchasing his farm. — Ans. had conversations with him respecting it. — Q. when was the conversation. — Ans. within three years, during the time of the speculation. — Q. was property then on the rise. — Ans. I think it was. — Q. when you talked in him the second time, did he know you & remember the business that you had been talking about. — Ans. thinks he did. — thinks he recollected the conversations they had about the purchase of the Farm, — thinks he recollected the various offers made by him for the Farm. — Q. Was the Testator declining to close the bargain about that farm, the only reason you have for believing his mind too much impaired to make a Will, if there is other reasons state them. — Ans. It was not based on that alone, my impression was in conversing with the Testator, that his mind was very feeble, not a very competent man to do business. — Q. be pleased to state the particulars of the conversation, when & where it happened, that induce you to form this opinion. — Ans. the conversations were relative to the purchase of the property. — I have visited him proportionally some short time previous to his death. — Q. when you visited him proportionally, did he understand what you said to him as an ordinary patient would. — Ans. he seemed to understand what I said. — Q. did he give rational answers,

Ans. thinks he did, he appeared to know him and know his family. — Q. What amount of money, did you first offer the Testator for his Farm. — Ans. thinks they asked at first two or three thousand dollars, dont know what we made any of for at first. — Made various offers same time afterwards, more and more each time untill 5500. Hollis was offered, thinks the negotiations were chiefly with the children. — Q. Did you ever apply to Garret Post to consult with the Testator what he would sell the Farm for, or authorize Garret Post to make any offer to the Testator for the Farm. — Ans. had conversations with Garret Post and with all the Brothers respecting the Farm, and perhaps has advised Garret Post to persuade the Testator to sell the Farm and accept his offer. — Q. did you ever examine any of the documents relative to the title of this Farm. — Ans. dont recollect. — Q. did you give it as your opinion, Testator could not dispose of the Farm by Will because it was entailed without the heirs joining in the sale, or any thing to that purport. — Ans. did not examine documents relative to title to his recollection. — Within three weeks Abraham Post the opposing party met Witness and spoke of the injustice his Father had done him in relation to the Will. — enquired of him the difficulty, — said he understood his father had made a Will & left him but one hundred dollars, or cut him short that A. Post asked Witness, if his Grandfathers will entailed his property, would his Fathers Will be valid. — Witness told him he thought it would not. — Q. is it often the case for persons here of hearing to Semors at one time that at other times. — Ans. think it is generally the case.

Signed E. Clark

Direct examination resumed. — Q. how long have you been acquainted with Mr. Parke the Witness in this case. — Ans. thinks seven or eight years. — Q. is he a temperate or intemperate man. — Objected to by counsel for applicants as irrelevant, unless confined to the time when the Will was read to the Testator by said Parke, and executed by the Testator. — Ans. I have occasionally seen Parke under the influence of liquor; could not say that he was in the habit of practicing of drinking. — Signed E. Clark. — Cross examination resumed. — Q. have you seen Mr. Parke when he was sober. — Ans. Yes he has; he is sober now

Q. have you frequently seen him sober. — Ans. Yes. — Q. did you see him on the 12th day of December 1837. — Ans. Cant say whether he did or not. — Q. did you see him in liquor ten days before or after the 12th day of December 1837. — Ans. dont recollect, saw him in the month of December 1837, he may have seen him a number of times but dont recollect it. — Signed E. Clark Adjourned to the 28th of May inst. — When the matter was resumed. Patrick O. Burke cross examined. — The will was executed on or about the 12th of December last. — the greater part of the Will was written at Witness house at the request of Testator. — Testator told Witness, that he wanted an alteration of his Will, that he had not the Will with him but that Gabriel Martino would furnish it, it was two months, less or more, within three months previous to the execution of the Will, that Witness was spoken to by Testator about making the alteration, Witness thinks he saw Testator at Witness house, or at the house of Testator, believes however it was at Witness house. — There was no person with the Testator when he spoke to Witness about making the alteration in his Will, when he spoke to Witness as a witness he told him he wanted an alteration as to one clause, as to his daughter particularly, & Witness cant say whether he took any notes or memorandum of the alteration to be made. — Witness wrote the first Will, it was executed in presence of Witness, Moses Johnson Esq. & another person not recollecter, and he thinks Gabriel Martino was also present; The first Will was executed in the year 1835, at the house of Gab<sup>l</sup> Martino. — Thinks the first Will is at home among Witness papers. — It is there. — Witness had the first Will with him at a former meeting. — When Testator spoke to Witness about the alteration of his Will as respecting his daughter, he spoke of other alterations to be made, the former Will was left with Witness about three months before the execution of the last Will & has been in his possession ever since, It was left by Gabriel Martino; In his second Will he left out the bequest to his daughter Sarah of a building lot which he had given her in his first Will; as he thought it might be detrimental to the sale of his property, Testator wished an alteration as respects his son, but did not explain what that alteration was to be; Witness did not make any memorandum of the alterations to be made; Witness cant tell whether any person was with G. Martino when he brought the first Will to Seal terrace, Witness had not seen the Testator as he recollects at any time after the first Will was left with him by G. Martino.

untill the evening when the second Will was executed, Gabriel Martino took the second Will the same night it was executed & kept it in his possession as he believes — Witness fixes the date of the last Will on 12th of December last, from having seen it on the table at the last meeting before Jurrogate — The last Will now signed by Testator between 8 & 9 o'clock P.M. previous to noon, after the execution of the Will parties had Tea at the house of the Testator — Witness does not recollect having said since the execution of the last Will, that it was executed more than a year ago, the Witness was spoken to by Mr Post about having made a Will for Testator — and Witness might have said on that occasion, that it might have been made a year ago. Mr Adams was present at the time, Witness does not recollect having said to any one that the Will was made or executed in the afternoon. — Q. do you recollect to have said to any one since the decease of Testator that when being asked who were the subscribing Witnesses to his last Will they were his near neighbours — Ans he does not recollect but might have said so. — Q. do you recollect to have said to either of the Witnesses subpoenaed on their decision to think to it & swear that they were innocent. — Ans No. — The question was objected to as indefinite, but overruled. — Q. did you know at the time of the first meeting in this cause, that Sarah Post sometime called Sally Post was attending as a witness. — Ans Only from hearing Mr Post say when she was coming in town at these the trials &c. — Q. after Sarah Post arrived in the Village, did you have a conversation with her under the shade, respecting the subject of this trial. — Ans Witness had a conversation with Sarah Post, but cant say where it was. Whether under the shade or in the house, in those conversations Witness does not recollect whether or no the infam'd Witness, that she was subpoenaed as a witness. — Q. do you recollect having been up there a few days previous to our first meeting & in company with you & Mr Post & the two Sisters & did you then and there learn that Sarah was subpoenaed as a witness. — Ans Witness has been up there lately, but does not recollect seeing the two Sisters if he has had any information on the subject it must have been from Garret Post, but does not recollect receiving any. — Q. did you on the day of the first meeting at the house of Mr Hamilton call Sarah Post alone in a private room and have a conversation with her. — Quot Overruled. — Direct Exam: — Q. did you write the Will in conformity with the instruction you received from the Testator. — Ans Yes. — Q. did you read that Will to the Testator as it was written. — Ans, I did. — Q. did you read it in a loud voice so that he could hear and understand it. — Ans, I did and he appeared to understand it. — Q. was you satisfied in your own mind from what passed at the time that Testator understood the Will when you read it to him. — Quot Objection to Obj<sup>n</sup> Overruled. — Ans. I am satisfied from a circumstance which took place at the time, for I read it to him more than once, & before finishing it, I asked Testator if it was all right, he answered No, for that he wanted to leave to Sarah some articles which should not be subject to the division of the household articles. — Witness added a clause to the Will according to Testator's direction and then read over the Will to Testator & he said he was satisfied Witness dated the Will as of the time it was executed, before its execution by the Testator. — The Will was written at the house of Witness, from the commencement to the twentieth line from the top, to the words Abscham & the after part at the house of the Testator, according to the best of Witness recollection.

 Joseph C Hart, was examined by Geo. Case Guardian &c. - Quest. who gave you directions to draw the will in question. - Ans. there had been a previous will executed several years before by the deceased. - I was a witness to that will, but do not know by whom it was drawn, - in relation to the present will, Mr Towles called at my office in the City of New York, and stated the deceased wished me to draw another <sup>will</sup> as her attorney, by which her brother John and her Mother should both have an income during their respective lives, in the previous will, the sum of ten thousand dollars was given absolutely to her brother John, and I think no annuity to her Mother, - and the reason for changing the bequest of ten thousand dollars, as given by Mr Towles, was that John had become irregular in his habits, and if he should get possession of that or any other sum, he would dissipate, and that it would probably be of no essential service to him - and also that the Mother of the deceased, was but slenderly provided for under the will of John's Mother deceased. - The will was accordingly drawn by me under the suggestions of Mr Towles, but I used my own discretion as the attorney of said, in arranging the manner in which the sum for the support of John and his Mother should be secured, - trusting when I should see deceased in person that it would meet her views, and if not I could make the alteration, on the spot at the time of the execution. - The will so drawn up by me was taken down to her residence on Staten Island, and previous to reading it to her, I had conversation with her as to her design in the alteration of the former will. - She stated in substance what Mr Towles had stated to me. - I then read the will over to her distinct and she approved of the same, and executed it in due form as originally drawn by me, with the exception of filling in of Executor's name and date. Signea J. C. Hart
