In the name of God Amen, I Jacob Lash of Vagawett in the Township of Bethlehem County of Northampton and Province of Pennsylvania yeoman being Indisposed as to my health, but of sound mind memory and understanding Thanks be to god for the same, but considering the certainty of a change and the uncertainty of the time when to make and obtain my last Will and Testament in manner following, and first Give my soul in to the hands of God who gave it, and my body to be buried in my dear wife's grave near doubting but I shall have a happy Resurrection through the merits of My Lord and saviour Jesus Christ, and as touching my worldly Estate and Effects I give devise bequeath and dispose of them in manner following; First it is my Will that my Just Ditties and funeral Expences be duly paid out of my personal Estate by my two Executors hereafter named, and then I give to my dear wife Anne Last one third of my personal Estate that I am possessed of or may become possessed of hereafter by means ~~hereafter~~ of any Legacy or will of my father, and also I give to her one chest to be the choice of any of my to best, and my other household goods Except it be my Childrens bedding and furniture, and each a chest, and then as I am possessed of three different ~~parted~~ tracts of land in the Province of North Carolina to wit one in the hands of Jacob Blum, to wit one of about six hundred acres, on the little garden in the Parish of St. James and County of Surry, a part of which is at present occupied by William Denable his Tenant to me, and the second containing six hundred and eighty four acres on the head waters of muddy creek, in the township County and Province aforesaid and the third consisting of three hundred and fifty acres of land on the town fork a branch of down River, described as a tract to me by Tho. Hugh Conterler It is my will that the two first mentioned tracts being equally divided as they can be each into two parts, in their value, Regarding last thereto and not the Quantity of acres by the three following persons (as soon as can be after my decease) whome I hereby nominate constitute and appoint for that purpose, and then I give to my son John Christian his first choice of the, then five Lots of Land, and then give unto my son John Jacob his next choice, and then I then I give unto my Daughter Anne Philipina the next choice, and then I give to my son Abraham the choice of the two remaining Lots of Land, and the Last I give bequeath and dispose of to my youngest Daughter Susanna Catharina Elizabeth Last and for the Effectual performing Dividing and Distributing the same five portions of Land to my within named Children
