

PROVIDENCE MONTHLY MEETING

Providence Monthly Meeting, located in Fayette County, Pennsylvania, was set up as a Preparative Meeting by Redstone Monthly Meeting in 1789. The Friends met in a one-story stone building. The date of the building is unknown but it is believed to have been built from the date of organization to 1832. In 1895, Mrs. Mary Binns, a descendant of early Quakers, rebuilt the meeting house with the materials of the original building.

In January 1832 the Pennsylvania General Assembly approved an act appointing John Coldron and Jesse Negrin as trustees of the Providence Preparative Meeting and further provided that in the case of death or removal of one or both of these trustees, the Providence Meeting could appoint new trustees.

Death and removals caused the membership to be so reduced in number that the remaining members were transferred to Redstone meeting at Brownsville between 1832 and 1870. The Providence Preparative Meeting was laid down in 1870. The only record we have found concerning a monthly meeting is one in the Redstone Quarterly Meeting records which indicates that Providence Monthly Meeting was established in 1817 and that it was still in existence in 1826.
