

Wm. Harris
will

I Robert Hayford Harw. of the city of Philadelphia; declare the following as and for my last will and testament revoking all previous wills except only so far as my former will, together with a certain subsequent Codicil may be useful in evidence to show that I have, ever since the marriage of my two daughters intended to provide for my Grand-Children to be born of them. Considering the husbands they had chosen, not persons on whom I could depend to make such a provision —

At this time I have but one child a daughter and as there is no probability that she will become a mother and is amply provided for by two deeds of Settlement my solicitude is for the children of my deceased daughter. Now, my wife's estate was much increased in the hands of the Trustees under her Jointure deed of September 10th 1845 by reason of the judicious investment of the principal in Real estate which in accordance with the provision of the deed, she and I have been permitted to from time to time direct and, as the Trust becomes executed in her at my death, she will, with the addition of the powers conferred on her by her Mother's Settlement, out of these resources which will amply supply her wants, throughout the remainder of her life, be able to provide for our grand sons or either of them, who may survive her, in such manner as the Character, they shall at that time develop may render in judgment expedient. My present purpose, therefore is to provide for my Grand daughter Caroline Fleming Davis, and to that end, while conveying a full legal Estate to my Dear wife who has during Forty one years been true and faithful to me under many trials and some misfortunes. I desire that she use it in the manner herein after stated.

Forty one years true and faithful to me under many trials and some misfortunes. I desire that she use it in the manner herein after stated.

I give, devise and bequeath all the property both Real and personal of which I may die seized or possessed to my dear wife Caroline Hemming Shaw. in full property and possession subject only to the contingent remainder herein after prescribed, in case she dies without having made or provided for the disposition thereof. I desire that she consider the income which she may derive from my property, thus given her, except that portion thereof herein after particularly mentioned as a separate fund to be applied to such investigations as she may be led to make for the solution of certain Archeological problems that have occurred to us in the course of our joint historical researches. I desire that the Principal of said property remain intact and if any of the income be not expended in the manner above stated, it is my desire that such residue be reinvested. I desire that my wife dispose by will of the principal of the said property including any accumulations of income thereof in such manner as she may think most conducive to the welfare of our said Grand daughter, and of any child or children whom she, our said Grand daughter may have whether then living or later born or in case circumstances arise giving cause, in my wife's judgment for withholding part or all of said property from my said Grand daughter and her issue then I desire that my wife dispose of the residue or the whole of said property in such manner as she may think most beneficial to our Grand sons or either of them or to the issue of both or either of our said Grand sons. I recommend that if our daughter be then a widow, she be made Trustee for our said Grand Children or their issue. — I suggest that my wife make a Deed of my cottage at Onst to Helen Caroline Berry; should she continue to give her satisfaction. My intention in making the above provisions regarding the use of the property given to my wife, is not to impose upon her any legal obligation but only to express my desire founded upon existing circumstances. Should my wife die without having made disposition of my property herein before given her. I direct that all of it whether real or personal, of which I may die seized or possessed shall go to my heirs at law, who may survive her, and they if females shall take to their sole and separate use. I suggest that my wife pay the net income of her property at the corner of Raking and Poppleton Streets, in the City of Baltimore, during her life to Fanny the daughter of our dear friend and late Trustee Thomas Donaldson of Howard County the State of Maryland now deceased.

As it is known to my acquaintances that I have been for the past seven years an assiduous Investigator of Spirit communication and at the same time entertaining in common with my wife who has been my faithful companion in this as in all other important concerns, views widely different from those of many other investigators of this important subject I desire to declare that I shall die with a firm faith in our dear Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ the only begotten son of God and with unshaken faith in his gospel more especially that of St John which I believe to be the highest authority of Ancient times.

I shall be pleased that my Friends H. Heyward Drayton and George Dight should their engagements permit should see to the execution of my bequest.

I shall be pleased that my Friends M. Heyward Drayton and George Blight should their engagements permit should see to the cremation of my body at Brooklyn or in that neighborhood, on Long Island

✓ I appoint my wife Caroline Fleming Haro my sole Executrix and I give her power to sell all or any part of my real estate for the payment of my debts at such time or times for such prices and on such terms as she may deem best and to make, execute acknowledge and deliver good and sufficient deeds, acquittances and assurances to the purchaser or purchasers thereof who shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, or to be liable for any misuse thereof by my said Executrix.

Signed, sealed and delivered for safe keeping into the custody of E. Spencer Miller Esq. this Twenty second day of November One thousand Eight hundred and Eighty six.

R. H. Haro.

Dear wife Caroline Fleming Haw. all property both real and personal whatsome and whosoever I have or shall hereafter acquire. whosoever I am or shall be. She has of this date prepared her own will in a manner entirely conform-able to my views but is of course at liberty to vary the same as her judgment may at any time direct. I have recently transferred to her about seventy five thousand dollars, being bonds and other personal property in order to put her in possession of every thing belonging to me without even the necessity of an administration, she will with these funds complete the Block of Stores in course of erection on one of my valuable pieces of Property at Norfolk. she is confirmed as my executrix.
