Probate matters in Case of probating the will of Sarah A. Daugherty deceased. A. H. Leafin on his oath states that he was acquainted with Sarah A. Daugherty in her life time. That she is now dead. She died on the 4 or 8 day of Nov. A.D. 1884 in Denison Grayson County Texas. Sarah A. Daugherty at the time of her death was married to Geo. W. Daugherty and at the time of making her will was of sound mind. The estate and property named in said will is located in Grayson County Texas and Anderson County Tennessee. That portion in Grayson Co Texas is about the value of $1500.00. That the deceased Sarah A. Daugherty executed the will with the formalities and solemnities required by law to make it a valid will. I was present when the deceased signed the will now in probate and I signed the same together with Clara L. Newman and Lewis R. Newman.

I Samuel Taylor do make and publish this as my last will and testament hereby revoking and making void all other wills by me at any time made. First I direct that my funeral expenses and all of my debts be paid as soon after my death as possible out of any moneys that I may be possessed of or may first come into the hands of my Executors and should it be necessary I authorize my Executors to sell a sufficient -ly of my personal property to meet all lawful demands. Secondly, I give and bequeath to my wife Elizabeth S. Taylor all the lands and money and all the personal property that I may be possessed of after all debts are paid for her support and maintenance during her natural life provided she is the longest liver to be disposed of at her will so the lands are not sold. Thirdly at the death of my self and my wife Elizabeth S. Taylor
