Last Will of J.D. Cooper.

I J.D. Cooper being sound in mind but feeble in health and knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death do make and publish this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking any or all other wills by me heretofore made.

1st. It is my will and I hereby direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of the proceeds of my personal estate as soon after my death as practicable.

2nd. In the event my wife L.F. Cooper survives me it is my will and I hereby bequeath to her my said wife my entire estate real and personal for her during her lifetime to use as she may see proper after the payment of my just debts and funeral expenses as provided in section one of this will.

3rd. Should my wife L.F. Cooper not survive me I hereby will and bequeath my property of whatever character it may be to my three sons and four daughters to share in the said estate equally, after the payment of all my debts as heretofore provided in section one and two of this my last will, and after the payment of whatever amount out of my estate is necessary and equitable in accordance with section four of this my last will hereinafter stated.

4th. I direct that my Executor pay to my daughter-in-law Lizzie Cooper out of the proceeds of my estate whatever amount as may seem just and proper for caring for my wife and myself during our old age and sickness, the time and trouble which she has already had the care of us and may hereafter have of us to be fully considered we already having had her care since November 1908, and during this time since July 1909 my said wife having been confined to her bed all the time and I myself on account of a nervous trouble being almost as helpless as my said wife and having to be fed and cared for by the said Lizzie Cooper who on our account and on account of caring for us during this time has denied herself of any other livelihood, and it is my intention that she be compensated for the care of us and that she some be made a charge against my estate for the time she has already had the care of us and whatever time she may care for us in the future. While I have paid to my sons and will pay to him, W.D. Cooper for our board an amount sufficient to pay for the provisions we actually used but am not paying only about one-half the usual price for board and this has been paid to him at the end of each month. Upon owing to the fact that his wife the said Lizzie Cooper has had special care of us and has received no compensation for the same I make this provision in my will and as directed above that this ~~same~~ be in as a charge against my said estate and treated as such by my Executor and paid out by him whatever amount appears to be just and equitable compensation, the condition of myself and my wife being taken into proper consideration and the time and amount of trouble to which the said Lizzie Cooper has been also considered, that she has already had and that she may have in the future. However should my said wife survive me it is my will that a sufficient amount of money and property be reserved for her use and benefit during her lifetime this to be my Executors first consideration and then the allowance to the said Lizzie Cooper my daughter-in-law next.

5th, Should I survive my wife L.F. Cooper then it is my will that sections one and four of this my will be carried out and then whatever amount of property that maybe left the same be distributed equally among my seven children, Dora, Clara, Melle, W.D., Ella, S.T. and Della they to share equally in the division of the same after taking from each share the amount that I have advanced them as shown by notes which I hold against them.

6th, I hereby nominate and appoint my friend S.A. Clement and my son W.D. Cooper Executors to this my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand in the presence of the undersigned witnesses on this the 1st day of May 1911.
