W. B. Bivens Last Will

I, W. B. Bivens being of sound mind and full going memory, realizing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, and that in life is the time to prepare for death, do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills
 by me at any time made, to-wit:

1. I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid by my executor
 as soon after my death as may be convenient, out of my monies or property that I may have at my death.

2. I give and bequeath all my personal effects, such as jewelry, household and kitchen furniture and other articles of personal use to my wife Annie K. Bivens.

3. All the real, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal and mixed of whatever nature and whereabouts located or situated,
 which I may own or have the right to dispose of, I give, devise and bequeath to the Commercial Union Bank, in trust for the following uses and purposes, subject to the limitations
 herein after set forth.

I direct that my executor pay to my said wife, Annie K. Bivens, from the income received from the trust fund in its hands, the sum of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars per month, so long as she may live and that if, in the discretion of the Trustee, such sum is not sufficient for her proper maintenance and support, the Trustee may, in its discretion,
 increase the payments to her, and if necessary,
 encroach upon the Corpus to do so. No distribution of the Corpus or any part of it is to be made to the child or children during the life of my said wife Annie K. Bivens.

4. My wife, Annie K. Bivens is to have or occupy my home place, so long as she may live or wish to do so and shall not be charged with any real things

and my Trustee shall be directed to pay taxes and insurance charges thereon,
 in addition to the $100.00 per month as above
 mentioned and provided.

6. Upon the death of my said wife, I direct that, the then existing trust fund in the hands of my said Trustee, or Executor be equally divided among my children, except that I wish each of my children charged with amounts that I have heretofore advanced them, and also with the amounts that I may advance them in the future, without interest. A memorandum of which, as to future advancements will be found among my private papers. I have heretofore made the following advancements,
 which are to be charged to each as herein stated:

To Dewey Bivens, the sum of	$3500.00.
To Dollie E. Thompson, the sum of	1660.00.
To W. C. Bivens, the sum of	1230.00.
To Hattie Ruth Spence, the sum of	540.00.
To T. B. Bivens, the sum of	900.00.

Such advancements as I may make to either of the above named children after this date, will be found among my papers, and is to be added to the above amounts heretofore advanced each one, and deducted from the share or interest of each one so as to make them
 all equal in the end, without interest.

7. My home place at this time consists of a tract of land divided by the railroad, and on the south side of said railroad there are certain gravel beds which are under lease to the Memphis Stone and Gravel Company on a royalty basis for a period of twenty (20) years from January 1930; and it is my desire that this land, which is under lease to said Memphis Stone and Gravel Company, not be sold during the time that said lease is operative or effective, but should the lease cease to operate, or default in the payments due under the lease be made, or the lease of any cause terminate, then I direct that my Trustee, or Executor herein named, locate said land, as in the opinion will be for the best interest of my estate.

My Trustee herein named is to have broad discretionary powers in the handling of my estate, being authorized to sell all real and personal property, to lease or encumber same, etc., except as herein stated, and no purchaser is to be charged with the duty of seeing to the proper application of the proceeds of any sale.

My Trustee or Executor herein named is expressly given the power and authority to sell and convey by warranty deeds to the purchaser or purchasers all of my real estate, and to lease the same, as it may in its discretion think or seem best for my estate.

8. Should any of my children die, either before or after my death, without issue, then and in that event, the interest of such child or children is to be distributed under and according to the laws of descent and distribution of the State of Tennessee, in effect at the time; should any of my children with issue living, then such living issue is to take and have the distributive share or interest of the deceased parent per stirpes.

9. Neither the principal nor the income of the trust fund shall be liable for the debts of any beneficiary hereof, nor shall the same be subject to satisfy any creditor or any beneficiary under any writ or proceeding at law, or in equity, and no beneficiary hereunder shall have any power to sell, assign, transfer, encumber, or in any other manner to anticipate or dispose of his or her interest in the trust fund or the income produced thereby.

10. The Trustee or Executor herein named shall manage, care for, and protect the trust fund herein created according to its best judgment and discretion, and shall have full power to invest and reinvest the same in good income producing securities; and shall have such latitude in the selection or making of investments as it might exercise were it investing its own funds and shall have the power to sell any property, real, personal or mixed, at any time for the purpose of re-investing etc. as it may seem best.

11. I hereby nominate and appoint, the Commerce Union Bank, whose principal office is in Nashville, Tennessee, its successors and assigns as Executor of this my last will and testament, and as Testamentary Trustee, and direct that it carry out the provisions of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof, I do to this, my will, consisting of three typed written pages, before this one, set my hand, on this the 14th day of April 1956.

W. B. Bivens

he, the undersigned, being requested so to do by the Testator, W. B. Bivens, witnessed the foregoing as his last will and testament by subscribing our names hereto in his sight and presence and in the sight and presence of each other. Interlineation on page 2 "with out interest" made before

Mrs. Sarah P. Cofford - Will

Know All Men By These Presents:

That I, Sarah P. Cofford, of Camden, in the County of Benton, State of Tennessee, being in good health and of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time made.

And as to my worldly estate, and all the property, real, personal or mixed, of which I shall be seized and possessed, or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my decease, I devise, bequeath and dispose thereof in the manner following, to wit:

1. All my just debts and funeral expenses shall first be paid by my executors hereafter named, be paid out of my estate, as soon after my decease as shall by them be found convenient.

2. I give, devise and bequeath all the property, real, personal or mixed, of every kind and character, after my just debts and funeral expenses have been paid, to my beloved husband, John Cofford, for and during his lifetime, and at his death to be distributed as hereafter set forth.

3. It is my will and I give and devise to my daughter, Mary Cofford, all the household furniture and household goods, of every kind and character, and all the chickens on the place, and my other children are not to share in any of said property here bequeathed to my said daughter. It being the purpose of my husband and I that the said Mary Cofford have everything in the house at that time, even in the way of household goods and furniture, and the chickens, as well as a cow which is this day bequeathed to her by my said husband.

4. All other personal property that I may own to be divided equally between my four children, namely: Nellie Remondet, Mary Cofford, J. R. Cofford and J. K. Cofford, provided I outlive my said husband, but in event he outlives me said personal property to go to him during his lifetime, and that at his death what remains to be divided as hereafter provided.

5. I give, devise and bequeath to my daughter Mary Cofford a One Half (1/2) interest in my Aching Creek farm located in the 5th District of Benton County, Tennessee, to have and to hold said interest to her, her heirs, administrators and assigns forever.

6. I give, devise and bequeath to my son J. K. Cofford the other One Half (1/2) interest in my Aching Creek farm located in the 5th District of Benton County, Tennessee, to have and to hold said interest in said farm to the said J. K. Cofford, his heirs and assigns forever.

My husband, John Cofford, and I have made separate wills and the two together make what we consider a fair and equal distribution and division of our property among our children, and my willing the tract of land I own to Mary Cofford and J. K. Cofford as above set out is to make them equal with the other heirs in my husband's property.

It is my will if for any reason either of my said children should dissent from this will or refuse to abide by this will and undertake to or cause institute suit or proceedings to set aside this my last will and testament, then and in that event he or she is not to share in my said estate and the property, so willed to him or her is to be sold and divided equally among my other children.

And lastly I do nominate and appoint myself, J. K. Cofford and my daughter Mary Cofford, to be the executors of this my last will and testament, and they to act as such without bond.

In Testimony whereof, I, the said Sarah P. Cofford, have to this my last will and testament, contained on two sheets of paper, and to every part thereof subscribed my name and affixed my seal this 21st day of October, 1927.

Sarah P. Cofford
Signed, sealed, published and declared before me

A. L. Hassell Will

Nov. 8, 1936

Knowing the certainty of death I make and publish this writing as my last will and testament I give and bequeath to my step daughter, Claudine Hudson my little parcel of land known as the Mitchell home place lying and being in the 3rd Civil District of Benton County Tennessee. I owe my accounts at my death it is requested of her that she pay them but if she refuse then I set that the place be sold and said debts if any be paid.

It is my wish that Claudine Hudson fully so if it is without land. This handwriting can be proven by several different persons especially G. B. Holladay W. F. Coff

A. L. Hassell

Be It Remembered that on this the 3rd day of December, 1936, the foregoing paper writing was produced in open Court by Mrs. W. F. Hassell, who moved its probate as the last will and testament of A. L. Hassell, deceased, late a citizen and resident of Benton County, Tennessee.

And it duly appeared to the Court that said paper writing is a holographic will.

And thereupon came G. L. Oadd, Floyd V. Hubbs, and G. B. Holladay into open Court before the Judges of said Court, and testified upon oath that they were acquainted with the handwriting of the said A. L. Hassell, deceased, and that they believed that said paperwriting and every part thereof is in the hand of the said A. L. Hassell. And Mrs. W. F. Hassell came into open Court and testified upon oath that she found said paper writing among the valuable papers of the said A. L. Hassell, that the said A. L. Hassell died on or about the 20th day of July, 1936, and that at the time of his death he was a resident and citizen of Benton County, Tennessee. From all of which it duly appears to the Court, and the Court accordingly so finds, orders and decrees that said paper writing is the last will and testament of the said A. L. Hassell, deceased.

Contd.

It is therefore further ordered by the Court that said paperwriting be probated and entered of record in the last will and testament of the said J. L. Howell, deceased.

And it further appearing to the Court that Claudine Hudson is named as the legatee under said last will and testament, and that the said Claudine Hudson is now married and that her name is Mrs. Claudine Hudson Gray, and that said instrument directs that she have as such representative without bond, it is ordered that Claudine Hudson Gray be and she is hereby named as the executrix under said last will and testament, and that letters testamentary issue to her without the necessity of the exhibition of a bond.

Last will and testament of J. J. Cary.

I, J. J. Cary, being of sound mind and disposing memory do make and publish this as my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void all others by me at any time made:

First: I direct that my funeral expenses and all my just debts be paid as soon after my death as possible out of any monies that I may die possessed of or may hereafter come into the hands of my Executor, to be hereafter named. But before any bill or debt against me is paid it is my will and request that they must be duly proven and authenticated.

Secondly: I give and bequeath to my wife, Roma Cary, during her natural life or widowhood all of my real estate and personal property and at her death it is my will that our two children, that is, the children that Roma Cary has had born to us, Elmore Cary and Samuel Cary, are to have the residue of said estate after my wife's death or should she marry.

By a former marriage, I and my former wife, who is now dead, had the following children:

- A. M. L. Cary
- B. Landon C. Cary, who is now dead.
- C. H. L. Cary.
- D. Mollie C. Massey
- E. James E. Cary, and
- F. John H. Cary

and I have heretofore given to said children a good portion of my property and they have heretofore been taken care of by me by gifts, donations and otherwise. It is, therefore, my will that the rest of my estate, which consists of:

One tract of land in the 2nd Civil District of Benton County, Tennessee, which was deeded to me by Oliver Hawkins, George Hawkins, L. J. Hawkins and H. J. Maiden, which deed is Registered in Book "P," page 545 and another tract which was deeded to me by C. J. Dodson, Mary Dodson and Martha Eagle and this deed is registered in Book "P," page 551 of the Register's Office of Benton County, Tennessee.

The first deed mentioned was made on the 23rd day of September, 1889 and the second deed was made on the 2th day of September 1889.

Cont'd.

And the tract of land consists of about 2 1/2 acres more or less.

Reference is here made by me to said deeds which are found registered as aforesaid in the Registry's Office of Camden, Tennessee.

It is also my Will that said personal property shall go to my said wife, the said Rejia Cary and our two children, Elmore Cary and Somers Cary, to be theirs as hereinbefore set out in this Will.

Lastly: I do hereby nominate and appoint L. Bradley Frazier, Lawyer at Camden, Tennessee, as my Executor, to carry out the provisions of this my last Will and it is my Will that the said L. Bradley Frazier, Executor, shall have the power and the right to make all necessary deed or deeds for said real estate and I am empowering him in this Will and giving him that authority so that he may make said deeds and convey said real estate without the necessity of a Court proceeding.

It being my Will that my estate be wound up without legal proceeding and I therefore empower my said Executor to make all necessary transfers and do all acts that are necessary in order to wind up my estate.

In witness whereof, I do to this my Last Will and Testament set my hand, this the 8th day of November, 1938.

George B. (Ed) Halladay Jr Will

(This is true entry)

March 10th 1938

To All People Present:

I George B. (Ed) Halladay Jr, do Will and bequeath all my real and personal property that I now own or ever expect to have or own to my beloved mother Mrs. L.B. (Mary E. Byrd) Halladay for the kind and loving care she has always shown me. She is to be in complete control with out and with out to make any report to the Court. It is my wish that she shall have every thing that I own. Should we both die together through some act of God it is my wish that my brother John M. Halladay, Jr act as Administrator with out bond and carry out my contract with my mother of Grandfather C. D. Byrd after he has done this, then it is my wish that my estate be divided equally between my brother and sisters.

George B. (Ed) Halladay Jr

State of Tennessee, County of Benton.

The above Will was presented in open Court on the 23rd day of March, 1938 by Mrs. L.B. Halladay, and proved on oath by Ira L. Hession, J.C. Parker and L.L. Dadd, who testified upon oath that they were acquainted with the handwriting of the said George B. Halladay, Jr, deceased, and that they believed said handwriting and every part thereof to be in the hand of the said George B. Halladay, Jr.

It is ordered by the Court that said handwriting be photostated & entered of record as the last Will & Testament of the said George B. Halladay, Jr, deceased.

And it is further appearing to the Court that Mrs. L.B. Halladay is named as the representative under said last Will and Testament, and that said instrument directs that she serve without bond, and it is ordered that she be named as the executrix under said last Will and Testament and that other Testamentary issue to her without the necessity of the execution of a bond.
