

Wm Lee Bowles - Will

Camden Tenn Dec 3rd 1930

I Wm Lee Bowles (widow of J.B. Bowles deceased) now living in my right mind and alone in my own home and fully realizing my life is short I am now writing my last Will & Testament.

I will and bequeath to my only daughter Mary Fay Bowles Crocker my house and Lot in Camden where I am now living alone with the understanding that she is not to sell or to trade it as long as she lives. At her death it is to be sold and divided between her living heirs. Lindell & Crocker her husband not to share with her children as this is his request. Also I will and bequeath to her all my bed clothes all my table linen dishes and kitchen furniture dining room furniture and the pieces of my house furniture she wants. The things she does not want is to be given to her brothers. They have decided to suit themselves except L.P. Bowles if he is living at my time of death he is to have my small ~~estate~~ I will and bequeath to Mary Fay Bowles Crocker my Post Office Box No. 8,000 One thousand Dollars to be what she thinks best with Lindell or her children not to have anything to do or say anything about what she does with the money. My other money in Banks and notes to be divided between the six children my daughter to share equally with them in all money & notes divided the other Legitimate I have heron given her. If any one of my heirs are not satisfied with this will they are not to say and are agreed in writing in my will for her to have just what I have named her for she has heard best to me than any of the other children.

I will and bequeath to my niece Maud (Mauden Redick) & be paid out of what $5000 Fifty Dollars money I have in Bank when I die because she has lived like a daughter to me so good & kind all the time I have lived alone.

Lindell & Crocker has no right to sell or trade this house and Lot for any other property if he does then this Will will be void & go back to other children wishing Gods Blessing to suit you all. I am your loving Mother.

Eugene P. Conyers - Will

First

I, Eugene P. Conyers of Springfield, Tennessee, do make and declare and publish this my last will and Testament hereby revoking all other wills that I may have heretofore made.

First

I direct that my funeral expenses and all other just debts be paid by my Executor and Executors or the survivor of them out of the First money coming into his or their hands.

Second

I give, devise and bequeath all of the residue of my estate both personal property and real estate to my dear Brother and Sister, H.B. Conyers and Myrtle Conyers, to have and to hold to the same in full, absolute and fee simple, and that they should and shall abide in, possess and in and with either of them present me in death that the survivor shall take the whole of said property as joint.

Third

I name and appoint my Brother, H.B. Conyers and Sister, Myrtle Conyers as the survivors of the above as sole Executors and Executrix of this my will, and direct that they, as the case may be, be released from giving any security or securities on their official bond and that they, as the case may be, be not required to make any report to any Court by record or otherwise.

Fourth

In making this my will, I am mindful of all of my very dear friends and relatives for whom I have great love.

Fifth

In testimony whereof I have hereunto affixed my signature this June 26, 1944.

A. N. Pearson - Will

Ex. Will and Testament

I, A. N. Pearson, being of sound mind and disposing memory, desiring to make provision for my family and the certainty of death do make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void any and all other wills by me heretofore made.

I direct that at soon after my death as possible, my executor hereafter named shall pay all of my just debts and funeral expenses out of any and all money or property owned by me at the time of my death.

With my wife, Mary A. Pearson, I will and bequeath for and during her natural life all of my real estate and personal property. At the present time I own the following real estate located in the 5th civil district of Benton County, Tennessee:

Beginning at the northeast corner of the A. N. Pearson entry for 200 acres and thence West 146 poles to the northeast corner of the First tract; South 162 poles East 46 poles; North 107 poles; East 13 poles; North 52 poles; West 13 poles to the beginning containing 152 acres and 51 square poles more or less.

Said real estate conveyed to me by the heirs of Katherine Pearson as appears of record in the Register's Office of Benton County, Tennessee in Book East 2, Page 65-66. This deed was made for an alleged consideration of $100.00 and the assumption of loan from the Federal Land Bank.

The consideration was never paid and the said Katherine Pearson did not comply with the terms of said deed and therefore I have been in the quiet, undisputed and adverse possession of said land since the time said deed was made. I feel sure that my son, Arthur T. Pearson, not dead, he would have executed a quit claim deed to me so as to remove the cloud from my title; however as aforesaid the consideration was not paid, the deed was a conveyance with the terms of the deed and I have remained in adverse possession holding said land as my own since the execution of said deed.

At the death of my wife I desire that I be to all of my property be willed to my children and that I desire as follows: a 1/4 interest to be willed to Mrs. Ethel Fargis; a 1/4 interest in Mrs. Mary Turner; a 1/4 interest jointly in the children of my second son, Arthur T. Pearson; a 1/4 interest in Thomas Pearson; a 1/4 interest in the children of Mrs. Clara (Goff) jointly, my deceased daughter; a 1/4 interest in William Pearson; a 1/4 interest in Eli C. Pearson; a 1/4 interest in Mrs. Abe (Smith) and a 1/4 interest in Cyrus Pearson.

I nominate and appoint my wife, Mary A. Pearson as the executor under this my last will and direct that she serve as such without the necessity of exhibiting bond.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my signature this 30th day of August, 1907. (S) A. N. Pearson, Testator

Allen Virgil Bowles. Will

I, Allen Virgil Bowles, of Benton County, Texas, being of sound mind and body, hereby make my last will and Testament in manner and form following.

First. I hereby appoint the Commercial Union Bank, of Groesbeck, Texas, my executor, provided they make a good bond, in the amount equal to my estate.

Second. I want all of my legal and just debts paid in full and if I have not enough money on hand to pay them, then and in that event I want enough of my real estate sold to pay them all off.

Third. If I own a stock I want my executor to give the stock of goods to my son, H. Vernon Bowles, provided he pays what is owing, if any, on the said stock of goods. If I do not own a stock of goods, then and in that event I want him to have $600.00 in cash which is the amount I have already given my three girls. I want my executor to pay my wife, May Bowles, Forty Hundred Dollars ($400.00) the first of each month following my death for living expenses and if my cash and bonds and rents are not sufficient to pay this amount, then and in that event I want enough of my real estate sold to keep up these payments until her death, otherwise I want all my estate, lands, live stock, to remain intact until my wife dies.

Fourth. I want my executor to put a small marker at the foot of my grave and my last fight in good condition as long as they remain in charge of my estate, the expenses coming out of my estate. I have my children equally and want them to share in my estate equally, when divided is made of anything I own. May God bless you all.

Last Will & Testament of Herman Harrison

State of Tennessee

Benton County

Know all men by these presents,

That I, Herman Harrison, of the County and State aforesaid, being of sound mind and disposing memory, realizing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do hereby make and publish my last Will and testament, hereby revoking all other Wills by me at any time made.

First: I bequeath my executrix, hereinafter named, as soon after my death as possible, to pay all my just debts, including funeral expenses, and any money which I may die seized of or may first come into the hands of my executrix.

Secondly: I give and bequeath unto my daughter by a former marriage, Vera Harrison, the sum of $10.00.

Thirdly: all of my personal property of every kind and character, after the payment of the first and Second Clause, I will and bequeath unto my wife, Allean Harrison, to be hers absolutely.

Fourthly: All of my real estate, which I may die seized of, I will and devise unto my wife, Allean Harrison, during her natural life, and after her death to my children by her, to wit: Herman Brandon Harrison, Mary Etta Harrison, Martha Joyce Harrison, and Robert Edwards Harrison, to hold as tenants in common.

I nominate and appoint my said wife Allean Harrison, as the executrix under this Will, and authorize her to serve as such without the necessity of appointing bond, I having the utmost confidence in her integrity.

Witness my hand, this the 27 day of August 1943.

Will of J. M. Frazier

I, J. M. Frazier, of Benton, Benton County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory and realizing that life is uncertain and death is sure, do make and publish this as my last Will and Testament, hereby repealing and making void all others by me heretofore at any time made. I first, I direct my funeral expenses and all debts to be paid as soon after my death as possible, out of any money that I may die possessed of or may first come into the hands of my Executor.

Secondly: I direct that a modest monument be erected to my grave and that of my wife if not previously done.

Thirdly: I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Emily Catharine Frazier, during the term of her natural life or Widowhood all my property, real, personal or mixed, she to have and use as she sees fit and she not be bound to account therefor; and in the event said wife should die and it becomes necessary to sell any of my real estate for her proper maintenance, care and comfort I direct that she may do so as these needs arise and she is hereby authorized to execute Warranty Deed for the part so sold to the purchaser thereof, but I further direct that none of my property to be sold for any instrumental or for any other purpose, during her lifetime or Widowhood, than to give my said wife care which she reasonably needs.

Fourthly: After the death of my said wife or when she re-marries I direct that the remainder or residue of my estate shall descend to my lawful heirs, share & share alike, as provided by the laws of descent and distribution of the State of Tennessee lastly: I do hereby nominate and and appoint E. L. Dodd my Executor.

In Witness Whereof, I do to this my Will, set my hand this 12th day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirty eight.

Last Will & Testament of Maria Calman Bowles, Sr.

I, Maria Calman Bowles, Sr. a resident of Camden, Benton County, Tennessee, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby revoking all previous wills and testaments made by me.

First: I direct that all my just debts, funeral expenses, estate and inheritance taxes, and the cost of the administration of my estate be paid out of any funds which come into the hands of my Executors, but that no part of any estate or inheritance taxes for which my estate or any beneficiary hereunder may be liable be paid, including such taxes on life insurance policies on my life or any other property not passing by my will, may be recovered by my Executors from my wife or any other beneficiary of my estate, but that all such taxes shall be paid by my Executors from my residuary estate.

Second: I hereby give and bequeath all of my household furniture, furnishings, personal effects, jewelry and automobiles to my wife, ELNA RAY BOWLES, if she shall survive me, and if my wife shall not survive me, then to my residuary estate.

THIRD: I give, devise, and bequeath to my son, if he shall survive me, the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5000.00) in cash.

FOURTH: I give, devise, and bequeath the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5000.00) to the Commercial Union Bank, Nashville, Tennessee, or its successors in trust, as trustee to hold in trust upon the following terms, conditions & trusts:

1. The trustee shall expend the net income derived from this $5000.00 trust for the maintenance, welfare and education of my grandson, MORRIS OLIVER BOWLES who is now living with his mother, SARA MARTIN RICHARDS, and the trustee is further authorized to use all or any part of this trust fund which the trustee deems to be desirable and proper for the maintenance, welfare and support and education of my said grandson. The trustee may, in its discretion, rely upon the advice and wishes of SARA MARTIN RICHARDS as to what expenditures are reasonable and necessary.

2. If any funds remain in the hands of the trustee, when my grandson, MORRIS OLIVER BOWLES, reaches the age of 21, these funds shall be paid to him in absolute ownership. Should he not live to reach the age of 21, then and in that event any funds remaining in said trust shall nevertheless become a part of my general estate.

FIFTH: I give, devise, and bequeath all the net general residue of my property, of whatever kind and nature and wherever situated, including the proceeds of my life insurance policies which may be payable to my estate to the Commercial Union Bank, Nashville, Tennessee, or its successors in trust, as trustee, to hold in trust upon the following terms, conditions and trusts:

1. The trustee shall pay to my wife, ELNA RAY BOWLES, the entire net income derived from the trust estate for and during her lifetime.

2. In addition to the income, the trustee shall be fully authorized to pay to my said wife, and from principal as is, in its sole and absolute discretion, believing to be necessary or advisable, from time to time, to properly provide for the comfortable maintenance, medical care and welfare of my said wife, taking into consideration all other income available to her for such purposes from any sources known to the

Just as the trustee is fully authorized to increase or decrease such payments from the Principal of the trust estate, from time to time according to his needs, to the end that the trust estate may be of the most good to my wife.

3. upon the death of my wife, the trustee shall pay over and deliver one half of the value of the Principal of the trust estate to my son, WILLIS COLEMAN BOWLES, JR., if living but if my son is not living at the time, then the entire estate shall continue to be held as heretofore provided for the use and benefit of my grandson, WILLIS OLIVER BOWLES, and such other legitimate children as my son, WILLIS COLEMAN BOWLES, JR. may beget and who are living at the date of the death of my wife. ~~And the trustee shall continue to pay to my grandson, WILLIS OLIVER BOWLES, and any~~ and they shall be paid the income therefrom, share share alike, until such such grand or children shall attain the age of 35 years, at which time he shall be paid his proportionate share of the Principal of said trust and the trust shall terminate as to him.

SIXTH: The Trustee shall have the following power and authority:

1. To lend money, contract, rent, invest and transmit the corpus of the trust estate in such property, real or personal, in such manner and at such times as the trustee may deem to be the best interest of the trust estate; to pay all expenses, taxes and other charges including reasonable compensation to the Corporate trustee, and the trustee shall be authorized to employ such agents and attorneys as it may deem necessary in the management and protection of the trust estate. Said trustee shall pay first out of income and then out of Principal of the trust estate and the income therefrom, including the Compensation of the Corporate trustee.

2. To sell and convey all or any part of my estate subject to the trust, with full power to sell or on credit, at such time or times, in such manner, and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem best; and with full power and authority to make proper conveyances and transfers without the joinder of any beneficiaries hereinafter named or approval of any court and to execute deeds to real property with covenants of general warranty finding on the trust estate. The above power of sale shall include the power to mortgage, pledge, lease, or exchange any part of the trust estate; to incur existing obligations beyond the period of administration or trusteeship; and to build upon, alter, or improve any real estate subject to the trust. ~~And the trustee shall have the power to~~ for the expenditure of any part of the corpus for that purpose as my said trustee in its discretion may deem to be for the best interest of the estate. The power to lease herein provided for shall include the power to lease for a period which may extend beyond the term of this trust whenever my said trustee in its discretion may consider it necessary or advisable to do so. The purchase of any part of the corpus of the trust estate, with the funds of any money on the security thereof, shall be under any obligation duly to meet the application of such purchase price or other money by the trustee.

3. I authorize and empower my trustee to buy invest in stocks, bonds and other securities and to

by the laws of the State of Tennessee for trust investment

4. The trustee is authorized to back any stock, bonds or any other securities or property in which any portion of my estate shall be invested at the time of my death, although the same may not be of the kind authorized by the laws of the State of Tennessee for trust investment.

5. In the event that my trustee be resigned, pursuant to the provisions of this will, to divide my realty or my estate into parts or shares or to convey the same, I authorize it in its discretion to make such division or distribution in kind or partly in kind and partly in money, and for the purpose of such division or distribution the judgment of my trustee, concerning the propriety and the relative values of same shall be final and conclusive on all persons interested in my estate.

6. The trustee shall have full power and authority to settle, compound or abandon all claims and demands in favor of or against the trust estate; to consent to the merger, consolidation, the readjustment of the finances of any corporation, any funds, notes or other securities or capital stock of which corporation may be held by said trustee, and to do and perform all other acts which it may deem proper for the carrying out of the purpose of this trust. Said trustee shall be authorized to vote in respect to any share of capital stock belonging to the trust estate at any time, either in person or by proxy, and to issue proxies in the same manner, authorizing such person or persons as it may deem proper to vote such shares. The trustee at any time acting hereunder shall have the right to borrow any security or other property constituting a part of the trust estate, to be loaned, sold, or registered in its own name, or the name of its nominee, or such firm, that title will pass upon delivery.

SEVENTH: The interest of any beneficiary hereunder shall not be payable, transferable, assignable or subject to anticipation, either by voluntary or involuntary act of any such beneficiary or by operation of law. And no person shall acquire any right, title or interest of any beneficiary in any of the trusts established hereunder in any such thing by judgment or final decree proceeding against such beneficiary, whether voluntary or involuntary. No spouse or person claiming to be the spouse of any beneficiary hereunder shall have any right or claim in either the principal or the income of any of the trusts established herein as a part thereof. No part of either principal or income of any of the trusts established hereby shall be subject to attachment, garnishment, execution, replevin, or any trustee process and in the event any such process shall be served upon the trustee, the rights of any beneficiary, with respect to whose interest such process is attempted, to receive income or principal, and the obligation of the trustee to pay same shall terminate until such process shall be released and discharged; provided, that notwithstanding the aforesaid attachment, garnishment, execution, replevin, or trustee process the trustee hereunder may make such advances from either principal or income for the support, maintenance, comfort, and education of any beneficiary as said trustee in its discretion may deem wise and proper under the circumstances.

EIGHTH: Any income directed to be paid to a beneficiary who is a minor, or to any person who is under legal disability, shall at the discretion of the trustee, be paid in any one or more of the following ways:
