

M. C. Boules Will Cont'd

by the laws of the State of Tennessee for trust investment

4. The trustee is authorized to hold any stocks, bonds or any other securities or property in which any portion of my estate shall be invested at the time of my death, although the same may not be of the kind authorized by the laws of the State of Tennessee for trust investment.

5. In the event that my trustee be resigned, pursuant to the provisions of this will, to divide my realty or my estate into parts or shares or to convey the same, I authorize it in its discretion to make such division or distribution in kind or partly in kind and partly in money, and for the purpose of such division or distribution the judgment of my trustee, concerning the propriety and the relative values of same shall be final and conclusive on all persons interested in my estate.

6. The trustee shall have full power and authority to settle, compound or abandon all claims and demands in favor of or against the trust estate; to consent to the merger, consolidation, the readjustment of the finances of any corporation, any funds, notes or other securities or capital stock of which corporation may be held by said trustee, and to do and perform all other acts which it may deem proper for the carrying out of the purpose of this trust. Said trustee shall be authorized to vote in respect to any share of capital stock belonging to the trust estate at any time, either in person or by proxy, and to issue proxies in the same manner, and to give such proxies to any person or persons as it may deem proper to vote such shares. The trustee at any time acting hereunder shall have the right to borrow any security or other property constituting a part of the trust estate, to be loaned, sold, or registered in its own name, or the name of its nominee, or such firm, what title, and such approval, as may be required.

SEVENTH: The interest of any beneficiary hereunder shall not be payable, transferable, assignable, or subject to anticipation, either by voluntary or involuntary act of any such beneficiary or by operation of law. And no person shall acquire any right, title or interest of any beneficiary in any of the trusts established hereunder in any such thing by judgment or final decree proceeding against such beneficiary, whether voluntary or involuntary. No spouse or person claiming to be the spouse of any beneficiary hereunder shall have any right or claim in either the principal or the income of any of the trusts established herein as a part thereof. No part of either principal or income of any of the trusts established hereby shall be subject to attachment, garnishment, execution, replevin, or any trustee process and in the event any such process shall be served upon the trustee, the rights of any beneficiary, with respect to whose interest such process is attempted, to receive income or principal, and the obligation of the trustee to pay same shall terminate until such process shall be released and discharged; provided, that notwithstanding the aforesaid attachment, garnishment, execution, replevin, or trustee process the trustee hereunder may make such advances from either principal or income for the support, maintenance, comfort, and education of any beneficiary as said trustee in its discretion may deem wise and proper under the circumstances.

EIGHTH: Any income directed to be paid to a beneficiary who is a minor, or to any person who is under legal disability, shall at the discretion of the trustee, be paid in any one or more of the following ways:

Mc. Bombs Will Cont'd

1. Directly to said beneficiary
2. To the legal guardian of said beneficiary
3. To any relative of said beneficiary, to be appointed by such relative for the education, welfare and maintenance of said beneficiary.
4. By the trustee appointed for the same for the education, welfare and maintenance of said beneficiary.

" In making the payments in any of the ways above specified, the trustee shall not be required to see the applications of such payments, but the receipt of the person receiving the same shall constitute full and complete discharge and release of the trustee.

NINTH: In the event any income directed to be paid to any beneficiary hereunder shall not be sufficient to defray the expenses of any accident or illness befalling such beneficiary, the trustee shall have the right to advance upon the principal of such beneficiary's share of the trust estate to such extent as said trustee deems appropriate under the circumstances.

TENTH: I hereby appoint the Commerce Union Bank, a Tennessee banking and trust corporation having its principal office in Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, as Executor of this my last will and testament, and I direct that it be permitted to qualify as such Executor without bond.

ELEVENTH: I direct that my Executors sell as soon as practicable after my death, the stock of merchandise and fixtures and all assets of the Mc. Bombs Hardware Company at Lebanon, Tennessee, which I own in absolute ownership, and also my real estate that I now own in the State of Tennessee at the time

Executors and Executor, hereinafter named to sell, at their discretion, such of my property real or personal, as is necessary to pay same.

Second: I hereby devise and bequeath unto William Davis Fry, and Janice Fry his wife, the son and daughter of William Davis Fry, deceased, the sum of $100.00 in cash, and unto my daughter, F. L. Low, late of the sum of $800.00, to be paid to them in cash out of my estate.

Third: I devise and bequeath unto William Elmer Fry, son of Elmer Fry, deceased, the sum of $100.00 in cash to be paid to him out of my personal estate.

Fourth: I will and bequeath unto my son and daughter, F. L. Low and Janice Fry, my diamond ring, the same to be delivered to her upon my death.

Fifth: I will and bequeath unto my daughter, Janice Fry, daughter of my son deceased, the sum of $500.00 in cash to be paid to her out of my personal estate.

Sixth: I will, devise and give unto my daughter Janice Fry, daughter of my son Davis, M. B. Fry and Janice Fry, my two sons, M. B. Fry and Janice Fry, and my two daughters, M. B. Fry and Janice Fry, one third interest each, my farm consisting of 4000 acres, more or less, located in the 6th civil district of Benton County, Tennessee, to be theirs absolutely.

Fourth: All of my other property, both real and personal, very kind and character, I will divide and give equally into my daughter, Janice Gay Landrum, and my two sons, James Marriah Gay, and Paul L. Gay, share and share alike, a one-third interest each and to be theirs absolutely.

After much thought and consideration I have arrived at the above through the disposition of my property. In view of the advances which have been made, and the expense that the disposition of my property as stated herein qualified that I desire my children, married and single persons only, my estate and that of my husband, the late M. B. Gay.

I have heretofore conveyed certain real estate to my sons, Paul L. Gay and James Marriah Gay, and I desire to appear to show that it is my wish that said property remain in the Gay family, and that they take appropriate steps to sell that land and is accomplished.

In any event any of the divisions, partitions or distributions which my will should contain the same, then and in that event such contests shall forfeit any and all interest in my estate.

I nominate and appoint my sons Paul L. Gay and James Marriah Gay and my daughter Janice Gay Landrum as the executors and administrators under this my will and wish in them all the necessary powers and authorities to carry out the terms and provisions hereof, and I further direct that they serve without bond.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, this 10th day of April 1904.

Will of Byron Poffard

Know all men by these presents:

I, Byron Poffard, a resident of Big Sandy, in Benton County, State of Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament.

First. I desire and direct that all my just debts and my funeral expenses be first paid by my Executrix out of any funds coming into her hands as such Executrix.

Second. I give, devise and bequeath all of my estate, real and personal, wherever located, to my wife, Nettie Green Poffard, in fee simple and absolutely.

Third. I hereby nominate and appoint my said wife Executrix of this my last will and testament; and I direct that no security be required of my said wife as such Executrix; and so far as I may I hereby relieve her of the duty and responsibility of making reports to any Court or Agency.

Fourth. In the event my wife shall not survive me, or in the event it is or be impossible to determine which of us die first, then I give, devise and bequeath all of my estate, real and personal, wherever located, to my niece, Miss Mary Beth Green of Big Sandy, Tennessee, in fee simple and absolutely.

Fifth. In the event that I die Fourth of this will shall become effective, I hereby nominate and appoint my niece Executrix of this my last will and testament; and I direct that no security be required of the said niece, Miss Mary Beth Green as such Executrix; and so far as I may I hereby relieve her of the duty and responsibility of making reports to any Court or Agency.

Sixth. I want it understood that I die Fourth and Fifth of this will shall not be effective unless my wife Nettie Green Poffard shall die before I die, or unless we shall die simultaneously, as contemplated by the Uniform Simultaneous Death Act.

Seventh. It is my desire that my wife, Nettie Green Poffard, or my niece, Miss Mary Beth Green, whichever is Executrix of this my last will and testament, be permitted to wind up my estate with a minimum of delay, trouble, worry and expense, and to that end, I direct that said Executrix whether it be my said wife, or my said niece, be relieved of the duty and responsibility of filing an inventory with any Court concerning my said estate, or accounting to any person, Court or Agency with respect thereto.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my signature to this my last will and testament, consisting of two pages, typewritten, on legal size paper, and I have also signed the first page hereof in order to properly identify it, this May 13, 1952.

Will of Thomas Edward Holland

I, Thomas Edward Holland, of Ebb, Benton County, Tennessee, but now confined to the Veterans Hospital in Nashville, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all wills by me heretofore made.

First. I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of any moneys coming into the hands of my Executor, hereinafter named.

Second. I give, devise and bequeath to my father, W. T. Holland, all my property of every kind and character, real and personal, wherever located. This includes, but is not limited to, my one-half interest in three tracts or lots of land, owned jointly by my said father and me as tenants in common, and more particularly described as follows:

Tract 1. Located in the 10th Civil District of Benton County, Tennessee, beginning at a post oak 7 1/2 poles NE to a red oak - mutton corner on road, thence from red oak 6 poles N. to Post oak; 10 poles from starting corner post oak to an iron stake to the beginning, containing 1/2 acre, more or less.

Title to said lot was vested in W. T. Holland and Edward Holland, the same person as Thomas Edward Holland, by deed from Theresa Jewel Boyd, dated Oct. 4, 1947, of record in Vol. 41, page 67 in the Register's Office of Benton County, Tennessee, reference to which is here made.

Tract 2: Located in the 10th Civil District of Benton County, Tennessee, beginning at an iron stake in the NW corner of W. T. Holland and Son's land; runs west to an iron stake to corner of TVA property (the entire length of my land, meaning Theresa Jewel Boyd) thence south to an iron stake at corner of TVA property; thence east to W. T. Holland land; thence north to the beginning corner, containing 2 acres, more or less. This tract, and Tract no. 1 above join, and come out of the tract, conveyed by M. L. Holland and wife Elo Holland to Theresa Jewel Boyd by deed of record in Vol. 34, page 189.

Title to said land was vested in W. T. Holland and son, Edward Holland, the same person as Thomas Edward Holland, by deed from Theresa Jewel Boyd, dated Feb. 7, 1948, of record in Vol. 43, page 600, in the Register's Office of Benton

County, Tennessee, reference to which is here made.

Tract 3: Located in the 10th Civil District of Benton County, Tennessee, Beginning on Gilbert Ingram's NE Corner and run south 16 poles to a stake; then east 31 poles to a stake; then north 35 deg. west 17 poles to a stake; then west 18 3/4 (22) poles to the Beginning, containing 2 acres, and 85 poles, more or less.

Title to said land was vested in W.T. Holland and son, Thomas E. Holland, the same person as Thomas Edward Holland, by deed from Ray E. Milton and wife, dated Feb. 23, 1952, of record in Vol. 46, page 258 in the Register's office of Benton County, Tennessee, reference to which is here made.

I hereby recite and declare that my father W.T. Holland and I purchased the above described real estate together, but I paid most of the purchase price. We had the title vested in us jointly as tenants in common, with the understanding and agreement between us that on the death of one, said property would belong to the other. This will is executed for the purpose of carrying out my part of said agreement; and my father, W.T. Holland is executing a will to carry out his part of said agreement, that is, providing that his one-half interest in said real estate shall be vested in me should he die first; and should I die first, I want him to have my undivided interest therein as herein devised.

Third: I hereby name and appoint my father W.T. Holland as the sole executor of this my last will and testament, and direct that he carry out the same in accordance with the terms and meaning herein stipulated and decided.

Fourth: I direct that my said executor be permitted to serve without giving any security; and as far as I may, as I should, I hereby relieve him of the duty and responsibility of making reports to any Court, or filing an inventory in connection with my said estate, all of which I give, devise and bequest unto my father the said W.T. Holland, as stated in Item Second of this will.

In Testimony whereof, I, Thomas Edward Holland, a single man, hereunto set my hand and execute this my last will and testament, consisting of two legal size pages, typewritten, as I have directed, on this

Roy R. Melton Will

Know all men by these presents:

That I, Roy R. Melton, of Camden, Benton County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all wills by me at any time heretofore made, with the intention of disposing of my entire estate.

First: I desire, and so direct, that all my just debts and my funeral expenses be paid out of my estate as soon as practicable or convenient.

Second: I give, devise and bequeath unto my wife, Bernice Melton, and unto my daughter, Miss Laura Melton, jointly as tenants in common, share and share alike, all of my property, real, personal and mixed, of every kind and character, and wherever located, to have and to hold unto them, their heirs and assigns forever in fee simple absolute.

Third: It is my desire that my wife, Bernice, and my daughter Laura, see that my other daughter, Miss Francis Melton is taken care of, and I leave this to their own discretion, knowing that they will each do the right thing by and for her, as I have tried to do myself.

Fourth: I nominate and appoint my wife, Bernice Melton and my daughter, Laura Melton as the joint and separate Executors of this will, either one or both of whom may serve and act, as they may choose. And it is my desire, and I so direct, that no bond be required of them in qualifying and serving as such.

Lucas M. Davis - Will

I, Lucas M. Davis, being of sound mind and realizing that life is uncertain and that death is certain to come to all hereby declare this as my last will and testament.

In case of my death previous to my wife, Mable W. Davis or either of our children, Betty Davis Moore or Lytton J. Davis it would be my desire that life in our home be carried on in the same manner in which it is at this time.

Having absolute faith in my wife and believing that she would make any sacrifice within her power for the benefit of either of our two children I hereby appoint her, without bond to administer the terms of this will.

First: I want all funeral bills, doctor bills or any other debts paid in full.

Second: I want everything that remains in cash, personal property and house hold goods and all real estate to be held by her and used in any way she thinks proper. This is to mean she has full power to do anything that I would now have power to do.

Third, should our children survive their mother I would want them to share equally all that remains after all her funeral bills, doctors bill or any other debts have been paid in full.

No bond to be required of our children.

Fourth, should our son Lytton J. Davis die without any heirs I would want his half to go to our daughter, Betty Davis Moore or her heirs.

Having absolute faith in my wife and believing that she would make any sacrifice within her power for the benefit of either of our two children I hereby appoint her, without bond to administer the terms of this will.

First: I want all funeral bills, doctors bills or any other debts paid in full.

Second: I want everything that remains in cash, personal property and house held goods and all real estate to be held by her and used in any way she thinks proper. This is to mean she has full power to do anything that I would now have power to do.

Third, should our children survive their mother, I would want them to share equally all that remains after all her funeral bills, doctors bill or any other debts have been paid in full.

No bond to be required of our children.

Fourth, should our son Lytton L. Davis die without any heirs I would want his half to go to our daughter, Betty Davis Moore or her heirs.

Written in my own hand and signed on the fourth day of January 1955.

Last Will of Mrs. Mary Jane Bradford

Last Will and Testament

Know all men by these presents:

I, Mary Jane Bradford, of Benton County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and aware of the uncertainty of life, do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all other and former wills by me made.

I hereby declare that I am nearly 72 years of age, that I am the widow of W. C. Bradford, who died January 2, 1950, and I have no children.

First, I desire and direct that all my just debts, including my funeral expenses, be first paid out of my funds coming into the hands of my executor.

Second, I give, devise and bequeath all of my property, of every character, wherever situated, one third each and share and share alike, unto my half brother, Fred Davis of Harpersville, Mississippi, and my half sister, Mrs. Daisy Davis Wright of Hickman, Missouri, and Carl Davis of Piggott, Arkansas, who is the son of my brother John Davis, deceased.

Third, I hereby nominate and appoint my neighbor and friend, Tom B. Halladay of Benton County, Tennessee, the Executor of this my last will and testament, and direct that he be permitted to qualify and serve without the necessity of executing bond as such.

In testimony whereof, I do hereunto set my hand, in the presence of the witnesses named below, on this the 20th day of November, 1957.

Last Will and Testament of M. F. Henry, deceased

Last Will and Testament

I, M. F. Henry, a resident of Benton County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory; do hereby make and publish this as and for my last will and testament, hereby revoking and annuling all wills and Codicils heretofore made by me.

First: I hereby direct that my executor, hereinafter named, to pay all my just debts and funeral expenses as soon after my death as practicable, out of any money or property that I may have.

Second: After the payment of debts and funeral expenses as above directed, I give, devise and bequeath all the remainder of my property, both real and personal, wherever situated, unto my beloved wife, Malissa Henry, for and during her life, with full and unlimited power of disposition and at her death such property, both real and personal as may remain undisposed of, I give, devise and bequeath unto my children and the children of my deceased son, Clifford Henry, as follows:

a one fourth (1/4) interest of said property to each of my daughters, Pauline and Martha, which shall include my home place at Camden, Tennessee, together with the two dwellings located thereon, including all household goods and furnishings to be valued at Six Thousand ($6,000.00) Dollars in the division of my property; that in each of said daughters are to be charged with Three Thousand ($3,000.00) Dollars for said home place of two dwellings and household goods and furnishings; a one fourth (1/4) interest to my son, Claude Henry; and a one fourth (1/4) interest to be divided between the children of my deceased son, Clifford Henry, as follows: One eighth (1/8) interest to my grandson, Gray Henry, and a one eighth (1/8) interest to the other children of my said deceased son, Clifford Henry.

Third: I hereby nominate and appoint my daughter, Pauline Merriam, as my sole executor to serve without bond.

Fourth: my wife shall not be required to make any bond, it being my purpose and intention to give her all of my property for her use and
