Joint Will

Know All Men By These Presents: That we, Cecil Theodore Mc Gowan and wife, Cassie Fiddella Mc Gowan, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and knowing the uncertainties of life and the certainty of death, and desiring to make a fair and equitable disposition of our property which we have been blessed with do hereby make this our last will and Testament jointly and mutually, hereby revoking any and all wills heretofore made by us.

Item 1. We hereby will and decree that at the death of which ever one of us, our heavenly Father may first call, the title and possession of all that the other may then have of property in any way, share, or form, including real and personal, shall pass, after payment of debts and funeral expenses, to the survivor for and during the natural life of said survivor.

Item 2. At the death of said survivor the real property known as our home place on Route 2, Camden, Tennessee, and consisting of seven (7) acres, is hereby bequeathed to our daughter, Opal Thos Mc Gowan, to be hers absolutely and in fee simple. We think that she is entitled to this consideration since she has devoted her time and life to caring for us during our sickness and declining years. The balance of our said property, both real and personal, is hereby bequeathed to our children, namely, Fiddell Mc Gowan, Ardell Mc Gowan, Elbert Mc Gowan, Isaac Mc Gowan, Mrs. Louann Mc Gowan Eversy, Helmer Mc Gowan, Mrs. Reta Mc Gowan Clarke, Opal Thos Mc Gowan, and Larry Mc Gowan, said children share share and share alike in said property.

Item 3. We hereby constitute and appoint our daughter, Opal Thos Mc Gowan, our Executor of this our joint and mutual will and we hereby authorize her to sell our property, either at public public or private sale, without any order from the Court and divide the proceeds as directed in this will. Our said Executor will not be required to execute bond.

Will

I, Edd Leland Dodd, of Camden, Benton County, Tennessee, declare this to be my last will, and revoke all wills previously made by me.

Item I.

I name and appoint the Commerce Union Bank, a Tennessee Banking and Trust Corporation, having its principal office in Nashville, Tennessee, as executor of this my will, and I direct that it be permitted to act in this capacity without bond.

Item II

I direct that all my just debts be paid as soon after my death as practicable and that all estate or inheritance taxes for which my estate or any beneficiary hereunder may be liable, as such beneficiary, including taxes on insurance policies and on any other property not passing by this will, shall be paid out of my residuary estate.

Item III

I bequeath to my daughter, Anna Lee O'Brien, and my son, Edd Lewis Dodd, share and share alike, all of my household and kitchen furniture, books, pictures, clothing, automobile, and other articles of a purely personal nature and for personal use, to be divided between them as they may agree upon. In the event my daughter and son have not agreed upon the division between them of the said household goods and personal effects and delivered to the executor a receipt therefore within ninety (90) days after my death, then my executor shall sell such property and divide the proceeds between my said daughter and my said son, share and share alike.

Item IV

I bequeath to the Church of Christ, in Camden, Tennessee, the sum of One Thousand and 75.00 (1,000.00) Dollars, in cash, to be used by said church for any proper church purpose, as determined by the Elders and Deacons of said Church.

Item V

I give, devise, and bequeath the remainder of my estate, both real and personal, including the proceeds of life insurance policies which may be payable to my estate, to my daughter, Anna Lee O'Brien, and my son, Edd Lewis Dodd, share and share alike.

Item VI

My executor shall be fully authorized to sell my property constituting a part of my estate, real or personal, upon such terms and conditions as to it shall seem best and to execute and deliver deeds or other instruments of conveyance necessary or appropriate for the proper administration of my estate.

My executor shall also be authorized to make division or distribution of the residue of my estate in money or in kind, or partly in money and partly in kind, including securities, real property, and undivided interests in real or personal property, making the necessary equalization in cash; the values to be determined by my executor at the date of distribution, and the judgment as to values and specific properties to be allocated to the respective beneficiaries shall be conclusive upon all parties then interested in my estate.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand on this Day of MAY 12 1951, 1951.

Mrs. Lanna Williams' Will

I, Lanna Williams, a widow, being of sound mind and disposing memory, realizing that life is uncertain, death is sure and in life is the only time in which to prepare for death, do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament, revoking all former wills, if any, by me at any time made:

Witnesseth:

1. I give and bequeath to my sister, Ruby Everhart, my shares of stock in the Citizens Building and Loan Association of New Castle, Indiana; and at her death said stock or the proceeds thereof to go to her two children Lanna Lov Everhart and Bobby Riley Everhart.

I also give to my said sister my two diamond rings to be used by her during her life and at her death the said two rings are to go to her said two children, mentioned in the preceding paragraph.

2. I give and bequeath my quilts, handwork and old dishes to my four sisters, Ruby Everhart, Esther Davis, Ababella Walker and Dot Morris, they to divide them between themselves, as they may agree upon.

3. I give and bequeath to my sister, Esther Davis, my bed room suit and my corner cupboard.

4. I give and bequeath my odd chairs to my sisters, Ruby Everhart and Esther Davis, they to divide them as they may agree upon.

5. I desire and direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid, and the one that I am living with at my death to be paid some thing out of the remainder of my money and property and after this is done, the residue, if any, whatever it may be, be divided, equally, between my brother, Clayton Ayres, Esther Davis, Ababella Walker, Dot Morris and my niece, Margarette Ayres.

I hereby appoint my sisters, Esther Davis and Ruby Everhart, executors of this my will, they to act as such without bond, and divide, transfer and deliver all my property as herein provided; they are expressly authorized and empowered to sell any and all property that I may have at my death, not herein specifically bequeathed by special gifts, so that they may make division of the residue without any court proceedings.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and execute this my will in the presence of the witnesses, whose names are signed hereto, upon this the 22nd day of January 1946.

Codicil:

A Codicil this day made and attached to my will which was executed Jan. 22, 1946.

The shares of stock mentioned in the first paragraph of said will, and bequeathed to my sister, Ruby Everhart, have been sold, but I give and bequeath to her the sum of Five thousand Dollars, provided there be that much money in my estate after all just debts are paid. I further give to her one of my diamond rings, rather than the two, as mentioned in the first paragraph of said will, she is to have her choice of the two diamond rings my other diamond ring I give and bequeath to my sister, Arbella Walker, and at her death I want Mildred, her youngest daughter to have it.

The items which I willed to my sister, Esther Davis, in the above mentioned will are to be hers during her lifetime, and at her death to be divided among my surviving sisters or if they be deceased, to their surviving children.

I give and bequeath to the Church of Christ, Camden, Tennessee, the sum of Two Hundred Dollars, provided there be that much left, the residue, if any, to be divided equally between my surviving brother and sisters.

deceased, died the owner, and which was conveyed to him by H. A. Cooper, County Court Clerk, of said County and State, on Nov. 28th, 1904 by deed recorded in Book "Z" page 143 of the Register's office of said County and State, and containing 196 acres more or less, she to be the absolute fee simple owner of all of said property after my death; and the residue of my property, not herein disposed of, of every kind and character,
I do give to my sister Eva Dickerson.

Lastly: I do hereby nominate and appoint Eva Dickerson my Executor and direct that she be permitted to act as such without having to make bond.

In witness whereof, I do to this my last will set my hand, this the 16th day of February, 1939.

5/Una Dickerson

Signed and published in our presence and we have subscribed our names hereto in the presence of the testator and in the presence of each other, and at his request. This the 16th day of February, 1939.
