Last Will and Testament of Richard Thomas Brooks

I, Richard Thomas Brooks, of Barton County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, with full knowledge of the disposition which I wish to make of my estate, effective at my death, do hereby make, publish, and declare this instrument to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all other wills or testaments by me at any previously made.

First: I direct that my executrix herein after named pay from the proceeds of my estate all debts lawfully owing by me at the time of my death, funeral expenses and any taxes lawfully assessed or assessable and all charges or expenses incident to the administration and settlement of my estate such as may be incurred during the course of administration.

Second: Subject only to the payment of the debts, charges and expenses of my estate, I give, devise and bequeath to my wife, Fay Hendon Brooks, if she should be ~~living~~ living at the time of my death, all property of which my estate may consist or of which I may be seized and possessed at the time of my death, of every kind and description, wherever situated, real and personal, either or both, as her absolute property.

Third: In the event my wife, Fay Hendon Brooks, should not be living at the time of my death, or in the event she and I should die as the result of some common accident or disaster, regardless of which of us may have survived the other, I give, devise and bequeath all of my said property of which my estate may consist and of which I may be seized and possessed at the time of my death, of every kind and description, wherever situated, real & personal, either or both, to my sister Lillian Jane Brooks, & my daughter Wanda Brooks Christopher, in equal share and interest to each as their absolute property.

Fourth: I nominate and appoint my wife, Gay Hendon Brooks, Executrix of my Will and I direct that she shall not be required to execute bond as such executrix, which is waived; and, she being the sole beneficiary of this my will, I further direct that she not be required to make or file any inventory, report or settlement in so far as such requirements may be legally waived with the Court of Probate jurisdiction. But, if my wife, the said Gay Hendon Brooks, should not be living at the time of my death, or in the event my wife and I should die as the result of any common accident or disaster, then I nominate and appoint my sister, Lillian Jane Brooks & my daughter, Wanda Brooks Christopher, co-executrices of this my will, & I direct that they also shall not be required to execute bond as such co-executrices, which is waived; & I further direct that they be not required to make or file any inventory, report or settlement in so far as such requirements may be legally waived with the Court of Probate jurisdiction.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto affixed my signature, & executed this instrument as & for my last will & testament at Camden, Tenn. this 19th day of May, 1964.

I, Addie P. Smith, formerly Parker, widow of J.M. Smith, deceased, a citizen & resident of Camden, in Benton County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make & publish this my last Will & Testament, hereby revoking and making void all other Wills by me at any time made.

First: It is important to me that my just debts and my funeral expenses be paid, and I hereby direct my Personal Representative, hereinafter named to pay the same out of any money or property that I may die seized & possessed of.

Second: I give, devise & bequeath unto my sister, Lizzie P. Moller, formerly Parker, widow of J.W. Moller, deceased, all of my estate, both real and personal, of every kind, character & description, & wherever located, the same to be hers in fee simple absolute. It is my intention to die testate to all my property, real, personal mixed. This devise and bequest shall be to the express exclusion of all other persons. As I desire for her to have all my property, to do with as she pleases.

Third: I hereby name & appoint my sister, Mrs. Lizzie P. Moller, as the Sole Executrix of this my last Will & Testament; & I desire that so direct that she be permitted to qualify & serve as such without bond or security.

Last Will & Testament of J. J. Vick

I, J. J. Vick, residing at Route 3, Camden, Tenn., Benton County, being of sound mind and disposing memory do hereby make & publish this my last will & testament, hereby revoking any and all wills by me at any time or place.

First: It is my will that my Executor, hereinafter named, shall pay all of my just debts including the expense of my last illness, funeral and administration cost out of the first money my Executor shall coming not his hands (as such); and, it is my will, further, that my Executor shall erect a double monument to my grave so as to provide for my grave and the grave of my beloved wife, said monument shall cost approximately three hundred dollars ($300.00). In the event I erect the monument during my lifetime, my Executor is relieved of this duty.

Second: I give, devise, and bequeath all of my interest of every kind and nature evidenced by Note, Deed of Trust, litigation pending or otherwise that I have by virtue of the Note, Deed of Trust, or litigation that I have in the 252 acre farm located in the 16th Civil District of Carroll County, Tennessee, to my son, Sheldford Lamar Vick, to be his absolutely; and, in the event I transfer said property or my interest to my son, Sheldford Lamar Vick, during his lifetime this provision of my will shall no longer be enforceable, there being no necessity for the same; in any event, it is my will that my son, Sheldford Lamar Vick, shall not be chargeable by my Executor for any sum as a result of any interest that I might have in said 252 acre farm now in litigation in the Tennessee Court of Appeals.

Third: I give, devise and bequeath unto my grandson, Larry Dale Vick, fifteen hundred dollars ($1500.00) and to my grandson, Brent Allen Vick, fifteen hundred dollars ($1500.00) and that shall be all that they shall receive from my estate and this money will be held in trust by my son, Sheldford Lamar Vick, until they are twenty (20) years, he will within thirty (30) days thereafter pay over said sum plus any savings interest to said respective grandson, and in the event and for any reason, he is unable to act as such Trustee, it is my will that L. J. Moffatt shall act as Trustee for said children.

Fourth: All the balance of my property of every kind and nature, I give to my beloved wife, Alma Carolyn Vick, to be hers absolutely to do with as she pleases believing that she will manage it properly and conservatively, and any balance of my property that she has at the time of her death shall go as follows: One half (1/2) of the personal property shall go to M. M. Carmel Church, Route 3, Camden, Tenn. to be used as a Trust Fund by the Trustees of said Church and her wife her interest and income from said fund for the use and benefit of said Church. The other one half (1/2) of the personal property shall go to my son, Clifford L. Vick. The Real Estate that my wife has of mine at the time of her death shall go to my son, Clifford L. Vick, to be his absolutely to do with as he pleases.

Fifth: I hereby nominate and appoint my son, Clifford L. Vick, as the Executor of this, my Last Will and Testament and I release him from giving any Bond as such, and it is my will, further, that he shall act as the legal Advisor of my lawyer, Attorney, Huntington, Tenn., in the management of my estate running up the same & carrying out the Trust for the benefit of my grandchildren herein imposed upon him.
