I, Carter M. Hardy, of the City of Evansville, County of Vanderburgh, State of Indiana, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all former Will or Wills by me made.

Item I.

I direct that all my just debts, funeral expenses and expenses of my last illness, be first paid out of my estate.

Item II.

All of the real, residue and remainder of my estate and property, whether real, personal and or mixed, of whatsoever kind or character and wheresoever situate, I devise and bequeath unto my two sons, Thomas H. Hardy and Harry E. Hardy, in equal shares, share and share alike, subject to the payment of one Hundred Twenty-five Dollars ($125.00) per month by each of my said sons, or a total of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) per month, to their mother for life so long as she remains a widow.

Item III.

In the event either of my said sons are not living at the time of my death, then and in that event the share or shares devised to my said son, shall go to their issue, and in the event they die before me, without issue, then and in that event the share of said deceased son is hereby devised and bequeathed to my surviving son. Provided, however, that the said surviving son shall be chargeable with the payments of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) per month to his mother for life, so long as she remains a widow.

Item IV.

The charge or obligation of either or both of my sons provided in this Will for the payment of a total of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) per month to their mother for life, so long as she remains a widow, shall not in any way prevent the sale or transfer of my property devised to my said two sons herein, free and clear of said charge, but shall not relieve them from the personal liability for the continued payments thereof.

Item V.

I do hereby nominate and appoint Albert J. Broadaw and my two sons, Thomas H. Hardy and Harry E. Hardy, or the survivors of them, as Executors of this my Last Will and Testament. In the event either of said named Executors fail to qualify as Executor for any reason, then and in that event the remaining persons named are hereby nominated and appointed as Executors of this my Last Will and Testament and of my estate and shall qualify as such.

As Written and Executed by him, Sept. 28, 1957.

I Robert L. Adle of Camden, Benton County Tennessee, do make and publish this as my last and final Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all Wills heretofore made by me.

(1) I direct that all my debts be paid as soon as possible after my death. (2) A small marker be placed at the head of my grave. (3) I direct that a like marker be placed at the head of space selected for my wife Evelyn. Wilcox Adle. (4) I direct that if I die before my wife Evelyn Wilcox Adle, that I be buried as my body will be between the graves of my first wife and my second wife. (5) I direct that my eldest son Robert Combs Adle be given in cash $1,000.00 and my second son James Richard be given a like sum of $1,000.00. My youngest son Kenneth does not share in this bequest as I have already given him $1,000.00.

(6) I direct that the Rentals of my home and the small apartment adjacent thereto be set aside to pay the hospitalization of my wife who is an inmate of the Western State Hospital. To pay the funeral, burial, and also to pay taxes, insurance and upkeep of the estate, and I hope that both the dwellings will be kept in first class repair.

(7) I direct that after the death of my wife Evelyn that the estate shall be equally divided between each of my three sons heretofore named. I further clarify this clause of this testament as follows: All personal assets that I have after paying one through five including has been carried out in full. Equally divided and then allotted to my sons named above.

(8) I direct that my son Kenneth Rosay Adle shall be the Executor of my estate and guardian for my wife Evelyn Adle, and he shall also be Executor of my will same without bond.

(9) After the death of my wife Evelyn Adle all money that has accumulated over the amount needed for taxes, insurance and my own expenses necessary in carrying out the provisions of this Will and Testament will be equally divided between my three sons heretofore named as equal beneficiaries except in direction mentioned on page (5).

Finally I want to state to my sons that there is no difference in my love and respect for either of them. I am proud to be the father of black. I hope that the provisions of this will be carried out in full without rancor or ill feelings by either.

Signed, J. Margaret M. Stinson

This is a Corridal or a Clarification of two Requests of my will and Testament that attached and must be regarded as a part and parcel of said will. In the will that attached I stated that my two eldest sons, Robert Combs Adle, and James Richard Adle were to be awarded one thousand each, then I want to correct, having given my son James R. Adle a check for One thousand Dollars in June 1948, a just a few days after the birth of his youngest child Kathy. I wish this amount to be charged to the entirety in my Estate of his heirs, namely Kevin Craig and Kathy Adle. And only Robert Combs Adle shall have a one thousand dollar prior claim and it is my wish he be paid the above sum of one thousand dollars, after which my Estate is to be divided equally between my two living sons, Robert Combs Adle, Kenneth Leslie Adle, and the children of my son James Richard Adle deceased.

In my Will I stated I stated the money derived from rents of my home and the little portions (known as the Garage Apartments) be applied to the Hospitalization of my wife Evelyn Adle, and the upkeep of the two houses, (Paint & Repairs) I want to further clarify the above in this manner, If there should be a residue of this money collected after all her bills and burial, it shall remain back to my estate and be equally divided among my natural heirs or their children.

 Twentieth: I sold a ~~house~~ and lot at 211 W. Lee Street in the City of Louisville, Kentucky, on or about December 1, 1926, for the sum of $13,000.00. Of that consideration I received in cash the sum of Six Thousand Dollars and for the remainder, I am being paid the sum of $77.72 per month; and the rest of said purchase money is to be paid within ten years from the date of the transaction. If I live long enough, I will collect all of said money that is due me on said house and the money will go into my own bank accounts in one of the Camden Banks; at my death, if there is any owing on said indebtedness, I want it collected by my Executor, who will collect accounts for it as the other money and property is accounted for by him, and he will distribute it as I have directed herein along with my other money and funds.

Twenty-first: I have a house and lot at 604 Paris Street in Camden, 5th Civil District of Benton County, Tennessee, which was willed to me by my deceased sister, Lela McCluffee (formerly Lela Pofford Woods) bounded on the north by Wiley South by I Rozier, east by I Rozier and West by the Flatwoods Woods, also known as Paris Street, extended. I desire and so direct my Executor to sell said house and lot at the best price obtainable, either at public or private sale, at his option or discretion, and make and execute a deed to the purchaser, or purchasers, the same as I would or could if living, collect the money therefor, and let it go into my estate, and account for it the same as my other money and property is accounted for by him, and make distribution thereof along with my other funds to the ones herein designated. I give him full power to sell and dispose of said property, and empower and authorize him to make and execute the necessary warranty deed so as to convey a good title to the purchaser, or purchasers, and they will not be obligated or required to see that the purchase price is distributed properly, but that will be strictly up to the Executor, hereinafter named.

Twenty-Second: All the real and residue of my estate, after the payment of my debts, and cost of administration, I give and bequeath unto the nephews and nieces herein named above, who are living at the time of my death, share and share alike.

Twenty-Third: I hereby nominate and appoint my friend and attorney, John M. Hallock, of Camden, Tennessee, the Executor of this my last will and Testament with full power and authority to execute the same according to its true and intended meaning, and having perfect confidence in his judgment and integrity. He has been my legal adviser and has assisted me with my business matters and he is acquainted with my affairs and knows how I want them handled after my death. I request and direct that he qualify and serve as the law requires and that he be charged with all the duties and responsibilities set out by the laws of Tennessee relating to Executors, and that he execute a good and solvable bond, with some good surety, or bonding Company as his surety, an amount that my estate will justify and that the Court may set.

I give him full power and authority to do whatever may be necessary to wind up my estate, and I desire that he be paid well for his services; and if necessary he may employ counsel to aid and assist him, and pay for such counsel out of my estate. In connection with the sale of my residence at 604 Paris Street, set out in Item twenty-first, I prefer for the property to be sold for cash rather than on terms for the reason that it will be much easier to settle up my estate that way.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my signature to this my last will and Testament, consisting of four legal size pages, numbered 1, 2, 3 and 4, in my presence and at my special request, and I have signed my name here and to each of said pages to identify them, on this the 30th day of October, 1957.

I, Reuben Garlon Hudson, Sr., of the City of Cumden, Benton County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this my last will, and I do hereby revoke any and all testamentary dispositions by me heretofore made.

Item I.

Debts, Expenses, and Taxes

I direct my Executors, hereinafter named, to pay all of my just debts and funeral expenses, as well as the costs and expenses of the Administration of my estate, as soon after my death as practicable. I further direct that all estate, inheritance, transfer or succession taxes or death duties, State or Federal, upon my estate or any part thereof (whether passing under this will or not) be paid out of my residuary estate, and I hereby waive on behalf of my estate any right to recover from any person any part of such taxes so paid.

Item III.
Residue

I give, devise, and bequeath all the Rest, Residue, and Remainder of my property, real and personal, wherever situate, but whether acquired before or after the execution of this will to my Trustee, hereinafter named, in trust for the following purposes.

(2) Additional payments to wife. In case my Trustee in the exercise of my Trustee's judgment and discretion deem and determine that the proper care, attendance, comfortable maintenance and support of my said wife should at any time during her life require and make necessary the expenditure of more than the amount described hereinabove, then I authorize and direct my Trustee to use and expend as much of the income and principal of my estate as shall, taken with other expenditures, be adequate and sufficient for the proper care, attendance, comfortable maintenance, and support of my said wife.

The interest of beneficiaries in principal or income of the trust created hereunder shall not be subject to claims of their creditors or others, nor to legal process, and may not be voluntarily alienated or encumbered.

(b) To determine what is principal or income of the trust estate, and to apportion and allocate in my Trustee's discretion receipts and expenses as between these accounts, including but without limiting the general application of the foregoing, the power to charge in whole or in part against principal, or to amortize out of or charge forthwith to income, as and to the extent from time to time determined by the Trustee, premiums paid on the purchase of bonds or other obligations for the payment of money, stock dividends and other extraordinary or non cash dividends, reserves for depreciation, and other reserves or charges, and to treat as principal or income or partly as one and partly the other, as to my Trustee shall seem best, all realized appreciation in the value of stocks and bonds, securities, or other property forming a part of the trust estate, resulting from the sale or other disposition thereof, and to deduct losses thereon from principal or income, and the Trustee's decision with respect to all of the foregoing shall be conclusive upon all parties. With the foregoing exceptions, and except insofar as the Trustee shall exercise the above directions, matters relating to the rights of beneficiaries among themselves as to principal and income shall be governed by the provisions of the Statute of Tennessee from time to time existing.

(c) To invest and re-invest the trust assets in bonds, stocks, mortgages, notes, any common or commingled trust fund or other property of any kind, real or personal, in accordance with my Trustee's best judgment, irrespective of any statutes or rules of law limiting the investment of trust funds.

(d) To publicly or privately, and without order of any Court, mortgage or sell and convey any or all of the trust property and my re-investments thereof from time to time for such amounts and upon such terms as my Trustee shall see fit. No purchase or mortgage shall be obligated to see to the application of any purchase or mortgage money.

(e) Each and every power and right granted by this Will to my Executor, Executrix, and I trustee may be exercised without any order of Court and without any notice to or consent of anyone.

(f) If at anytime the Trustee is required to divide the trust property into shares or to make distribution thereof, my Trustee is authorized in my Trustee's sole discretion to make division or distribution wholly or partly in Cash or kind. The judgment of the Trustee as to the values for the purpose of such division or distribution shall be binding and conclusive on all beneficiaries hereunder. In making any such distribution or division, the Trustee shall be fully protected in relying upon an instrument which shall have been admitted to probate in any jurisdiction as the last Will of any decedent trust beneficiary, or in acting upon the assumption that any decedent trust beneficiary died intestate in case the Trustee shall have no notice of the existence of a will of such beneficiary within three months after the death thereof.
