My Dear Nephew

I received your letter a few days ago, which gave us much pleasure as it informed ^{me} of your health and that of my Sisters & other Friends in Kentucky.

The Health of my health Family and Andrew's Family is good and our healthy City has but few complaints at present except the high prices of many ~~articles~~ ^{articles} of provisions & the low price of Cotton which is the regulating article of our Country; Many of the knowing ones of our Country are anticipating hard times and I fear their anticipations will be realized.

You inform me that you are going to New Orleans this information Winter and wish some information in relation to our Bro Thomas' of being. I am very sorry that I am able to give you no reliable information on the subject, and think it possible that among my Father's old papers if they are preserved you might find some letters that would throw some light on the subject; For I think I can recollect that he held a correspondence on the subject.

I have a recollection of seeing in a New Orleans paper an advertisement containing a
