Judgment on the wicked, and blessing on

Before CHRIST 30-307.

1 God's judgment on the wicked; 2 and his blessing on the good. 4 He exhorteth to the study of the law, 5 and telleth of Elijah's coming and office.

FOR, behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

2 But unto you that fear my name shall the sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth and grow up as calves of the stall.

3 And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet, in the day that I shall do this, saith the Lord of hosts.

4 Remember ye the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, with the statutes and judgments.

5 Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord:

6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

Mrs. Lella Stapler Deceased
Mrs. Lella Stapler, wife of James S. Stapler, died at her residence in S. Tahlequah Saturday evening, April 16 at 10 o'clock after an illness of three days. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. M. Hamilton, pastor of the Presbyterian church, at the residence Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and the remains were interred in the city cemetery the same day at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Stapler was 39 years old. She was born in New Orleans April 13th 1829, and was the daughter of Major and Mrs. N. B. Breddin, who resided at Lynchburg, Va., and came to the Indian Territory in 1879. She taught school at Fort Gibson and afterwards in the Female Seminary and was married to James Stapler September 21, 1881. Three children have preceded her to the great beyond. Mrs. Stapler was a member of the Presbyterian church of Tahlequah and was an active worker for the cause of Christianity. She has been identified with every charitable move of the ladies of Tahlequah for many years, and was always willing and ready to lend her aid when good could be done for the poor, sick and unfortunate. Her death not only

Local Improvement Society Resolutions.

At a meeting of the Local Improvement society, held April 21, a committee of four was appointed to draft resolutions to express the sympathy of the society with the bereaved family, and also to express the high esteem in which the life and services of the deceased are held by the society.

The following resolutions were adopted: There are times when a whole community feels itself bereaved in the removal of one of its most highly respected residents by the ruthless hand of death. That such a time has come to Tahlequah and this society by the death of Mrs. Stapler, who has been an active and faithful member of the Local Improvement society since its organization in 1887.

Resolved, That we, the members of the Local Improvement society, deeply sympathize with the family and relatives of the deceased in this bereavement, and express our sorrow for her departure.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished to each of the journals published in the town with the request to publish.

MRS. URILDA BREEDLOVE SMITH.

The death of Mrs. Urida Breedlove Smith, which occurred yesterday, after a short illness, will be deplored by a wide circle of friends and relatives in this city. Mrs. Smith had attained the patriarchal age of 85 years, and retained all her faculties undimmed up to within a few hours of her end. She was a native of this city, and was born 18 October, 1819. Her father, James W. Breedlove, was a man of prominence in his day, and was at one time collector of the Port of New Orleans. Her mother was a daughter of General James Winchester, who commanded the American army at the battle of the Rain, and was one of the pioneers of the State of Tennessee. Mrs. Smith married Isaac Wrightman Smith, a wealthy and prominent merchant of this city, who was at one time a member of the State Legislature and filled other important political offices. Mr. Smith died in Europe half a century ago. Mrs. Smith's subsequent life was devoted to her children. She was a woman of rarely beautiful character, cultivated and accomplished in many ways. She leaves a daughter, Mrs. John E. Rodd, and a son Mr. Breedlove Smith, of St. Louis, Mo., and several grandchildren. The funeral will take place at 1 o'clock p.m. today, from the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. John E. Rodd, No. 2708 Chestnut Street. The friends of the family are expected to be present at the residence, but the funeral will be private.

Ex-Judge William Wilson, one of the oldest living Cherokees, lies very sick at the home of his son Philias, near the south part of town.

The ELEVATOR regrets that it is called upon this week to chronicle the death of Judge William Wilson, which occurred at Muldrais Sunday afternoon. Judge Wilson was 57 years of age at the time of his demise, and sixty of these years had been passed in the Indian Territory, not very far from where his last days were spent. Georgia, we believe, was his native State. He was a strong man in every sense of the word—clear-headed, honest and patriotic. In his earlier days he possessed no small degree of influence with his people, by whom he was always held in the highest esteem, and who will sincerely mourn his departure.
