LORD of Hosts.
 10 Have we not one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by possessing the covenant of our fathers?
 11 ¶ Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem: for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god.
 12 The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this: he the master and the scholar out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.
 13 And thus have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiv-eth it with good will at your hand.
 14 ¶ Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against half dealt treacherously: and ye have despised his covenant, and the wife of your youth hath dealt treacherously against you.
 15 And ye did not say, We will be as the heathen, and we will serve strange gods: for we have refused the LORD our God, we have forsaken him, we have not kept his voice, we have despised his word, we have despised his voice, we have despised his word, we have despised his voice, we have despised his word.
