CARNEY.

BORN JULY 10, 1833
DIED DEC 23, 1893

The friends and acquaintances of Mr. W. J. Carney are requested to attend the funeral of his wife, to-morrow, Sunday, at 10 o'clock.

MARIA

Services conducted at home and house by Rev. A. P. McFerrin

MARSHFIELD, MASS., DEC. 23, 1893.

Dec. 24th the remains of Mrs. W. J. Carney were laid at rest in the Evergreen Cemetery. Mrs. Carney had been sick only a few days. But medical skill and the ministrations of loving hands were unable to draw her from the icy bed of death. She was loved by all who knew her. A good woman has gone and not only her family, but the entire community mourn the loss.

BECAUSE
Bible pronounces no blessing on drinking, but many up- abstemious.
is easier to keep a pledge solemnly given than a resolution.
The pledge protects us from suggestions of friends and relatives from the temptations of the world.
Persons miscalculate their strength to drink in moderation, and are led to the drinking habit by a false sense of security.
Temperance obstructs civilization, education, religion and every useful reform.
