Dear Walter -

14 Sept 71

It was a pleasure talking to you and as promised I am enclosing herewith copies of Birth Records from my great and great-great grandparents, the latter also includes births in the "Black Family".

Thos Morris Clark 1763-1817

James Payne Clark 1797-1863

The records in the older bible tell the story of the Clarks gradual migration

1st Three Children born Fluvanna County VA 1769-92

4th Child " North Fork Holston, State of Tenn 1795 (then NC)

5th & 6th " Grassy Valley, Tenn 1797-99

7th & 8th " South West Point Tenn 1802-03

The first black barn in Tenn (then N.C.) was at North Fork of Holston in 1793 (Aug) so TN Clark tribe must have come into Tenn in late 92 or early 1793.

When I find out where Hardey Murfree is buried I'll let you know.

I look forward to meeting you and with kindest regards

Very sincerely

Sheff Clark

He is buried on Carvers Creek Pike ca 6 miles south of Franklin (MWF - a descendant)
